FARMINGTON AREA

COMMISSION ON AGING

“To promote the well being and dignity of older adults
in our community”

Introduction

The Farmington Adult Resource Directory lists the services and activities available to older adults living in the Farmington area in alphabetical order by subject. This directory will acquaint you with the many important resources available to you in the community.

Listings are for informational purposes only and do not imply an endorsement. Any omissions are unintentional and do not reflect the value of that agency. At the time of this publication, all phone numbers are correct. Services and programs provided through the Farmington and Farmington Hills Senior Adult Division are listed throughout this directory in bold print.

City of Farmington: www.ci.farmington.mi.us

Administration on Aging www.aoa.dhhs.gov

This site includes information about insurance, lifestyle management, finances, nursing homes, assisted living, and living independently. The site also contains links to other sites of interest to the older consumer.

American Association of Retired Persons www.aarp.org

This site has many topics and links of interest to older persons and their families.

American Health Care Association www.ahca.org/info/pubthink.htm

This association represents long-term care in its many forms. This site contains a guide to choosing a nursing facility. The guide covers much of the same information as the one offered by Medicare, but also includes an extensive assessment guide for patients and families to use in evaluating the nursing facility.

Eldercare Locator-U.S. Administration on Aging www.eldercare.gov

A nationwide service that helps consumers find appropriate services for older adults in the area where you or your family member resides.

Health Care Financing Administration - Medicare & Medicaid www.medicare.gov

This site contains the "Guide to choosing a nursing home" which includes long term care options, definitions, payment for services and care, how to assess a nursing home, and a variety of issues related to nursing home living.

Michigan Access to Services for Seniors www.miseniors.net

The Michigan Office of Services to the Aging sponsors this site. Type in your city and zip code and get a list of nursing homes, senior centers, home health care agencies, and a host of other resources.

National Family Caregivers Association www.nfcacares.org

This site provides information about care giving and chat rooms for caregivers.

Oakland Helplink www.oaklandhelplink.org

A resource directory for families and professionals to find help and events for people of all ages with special needs.
