Franklin's baseball mentor

Hellier selected top coach

The Livonia Franklin baseball squad had a record of 13-16 during the 1975 season, but this past year, it finished 24-4. The main figure behind the improvement is Patriots' coach Ron Hellier.

Hellier was recently selected Michigan Class A high school baseball coach of the year and also named talent scout for the Cincinnati Reds.

"I felt honored to get the award," said Hellier. "I think that this is the first time that a coach from our area received the award. Usually the recipient comes from the Royal Oak or Hazel Park area."

Hellier will formally receive his award this winter at the annual high school coaches meeting at Michigan State University.

The head mentor has been coaching the Franklin team since the spring of 1969.

A pitcher on the Olivet College baseball team, Hellier earned four varsity letters. After his stay at Olivet, he went to Eastern Michigan University where he completed his Masters in physical education. "I was a graduate assistant coach in 1967 under Ron Oestrike at Eastern," he said. "I learned a lot of valuable information about coaching from Oestrike."

Coaching six nights per week was normal for Hellier during previous summers, as he was active in both the Adray and the Connie Mack leagues.

"Six nights per week was too much baseball now that my children are getting older. Robbie is four and Lisa is seven and I have to spend more time with them," Hellier said.

He added that his wife Laurie is also a baseball fan and that she attends many of the games.

Griffin Sport in the Adray League is the only team that Hellier coaches this summer, but he seems to enjoy high school coaching a bit more.

"Adray is a real challenge," said Hellier, "because you have a better caliber of players and you have to recruit them.

"The reason that I enjoy high school is because the togetherness seems to be apparent. I especially enjoyed coaching this year's club. They weren't the most talented players that I have had, but they jelled together as a team, and that was a joy to watch."

Hellier added that much of the credit for his winning the coach of the year designation has to go to his players, mentioning that Steve Trenski Jerry Pollard and Tim Hollandsworth did super jobs.

Though Hellier is happy at coaching, he is not content to stay at his present level.

"I want to coach in college. I will surely look into any offers that come my way," he said.
