ELECTRONIC TECHNICIANS
TRAINING ENGINEERS
TECHNICAL WRITERS

They said it couldn't be done . . . but Numa•Logic did it. The reliability, power and design of our new line of programmable controllers and industrial control systems have placed our division on an exciting and aggressive growth curve. We invite you to become a part of our future.

ELECTRONIC TECHNICIANS-Openings exist at several levels assisting our manufacturing staff in the testing of electronic and microprocessor components. Should be familiar with digital logic analysis and industrial controls. Technical schooling plus 2 years experience desirable.

TRAINING ENGINEERS-The successful candidates will be part of the marketing staff developing and conducting educational and training programs to support and expand use of Numa•Logic's growing family of products. Qualified individuals will possess a combination of electrical engineering knowledge with effective communications and instructor aptitudes.

TECHNICAL WRITERS-Several positions exist for individuals with technical degrees and proven writing capabilities. You will develop and write user manuals, advertising material, product specifications, proposals, training programs and other marketing communication materials. Electronic solid state systems familiarity is desirable. Should have a minimum of 2 years experience.

A comprehensive range of personal benefit programs, competitive salaries commensurate with experience, and an opportunity for challenging professional and technical growth are a part of your Westinghouse Numa•Logic career.
