Harrison tops Mott

North matmen drop key meet

Westland John Glenn routed North Farmington, 50-5, last Thursday night in a Northwest Suburban League wrestling showdown on Glenn's mats.

In other meets last week, Farmington Harrison won eight of 13 matches to defeat Waterford Mott, 38-23, in a Western Six League meet. Southfield High and Warren Tower battled to a 33-all tie, and Ferndale High stopped Southfield Lathrup, 42-18, in non league contests.

North's lone match victory came in the 126-pound class as Mike Fuhrer decisioned Lawrence Newton, 8-4. North had three undefeated wrestlers — heavyweight Jim Sudkamp, 132-pound Marty Benda and 138-pound John Cotter — going into the meet with Glenn. After the meet, only Sudkamp could claim undefeated status. He drew with Jerome Robinson, 3-3.

Glenn's Mike Collins decisioned Cotter, 8-3, in the 138-pound bout, while Bill Meyer decisioned Benda, 11-6, at 132.

"There were a lot of close matches which could have gone either way," said Glenn coach Bob Lusk. "The final result was a combination of our boys wrestling very well, and North Farmington maybe being a little flat."

North Farmington coach Jim O'Leary wasn't so complimentary about his team's performance. "We got drubbed," he said. "We stunk the place out."

HARRISON LIFTED its overall record to 6-3 with the victory over Mott. Harrison's Brian Crudele, a 98-pounder, decisioned Fred Leninger, 5-0. Pat Maher gave Harrison another victory when he pinned Steve Wyant in 5:57 in the 138-pound class. Fred Blackmer of Harrison pinned Bernie Casey in 3:48 at 178.

Coach Ray Toohey's Lathrup team hasn't won a meet this season, but three Chargers are undefeated. They are Jim Fish (105 pounds), Rob Parent (112) and Jim Setsuda (155). All won in a losing cause against Ferndale. Fish decisioned Leonhardt, 12-2. Parent, wrestling in the 126 class, decisioned Heath, 11-3, and Setsuda decisioned Aubuchon, 16-4.

In the Southfield-Warren Tower meet, Southfield's Dave Stone pinned Frank Gruckumuas in 1:40 in the 98-pound class. Southfield's Kevin Arensman pinned John Nader in 1:31 at 132, and teammate Greg Gagner decisioned John Perencho, 7-5, at 145. Two other Blue Jay wrestlers, Eugene Zakrzewski (165) and Al Bittker (191) won on forfeits.

Earlier, Birmingham Seaholm defeated Southfield, 60-8.

Aquarius tankers begin season in Garden City

The Michigan Aquarius Club opened its synchronized swimming season in a fine showing against 200 competitors on Dec. 12 at Garden City.

Aquarians capturing ribbons or trophies in the novice compulsory figures (11-12 year olds) were Linda Knoll, of Farmington Hills, 1st; Cecelia Seidler, of Bloomfield Hills, 2nd; and Paula Sasher, of Bloomfield Hills, fourth.

In the 13-14 year old group, Karen Kowal of Lathrup Village took first and Eileen Goodman of Southfield was fifth.

In the 15-and-under division of the compulsory optional figures, Pamela Berne of Birmingham captured a third place and Diana Flagg of Lathrup was sixth after suffering a one point penalty for improper sequence.

Laura Berne took a first as the only Aquarian to score in the 11-12 age group.

In the 13-14 year old division, Denise Opteck of Southfield took a third; Rosemary Cerey of Birmingham was fourth; Linda Werrell of Bloomfield was fifth, and 13th place went to Darcy Rollins of Southfield.

The two most promising candidates for state and national honors on coach Fran Jones' team this year are Laura Berne and Kathy Seidler. Laura won the class competition, averaging 5.5 out of 10, and Kathy, a four year swim veteran under coach Jones, placed fourth in the senior class with a six point average in each figure and took first in the junior division.

Club members practice three nights a week in two hour sessions at West Maple Junior High.
