GRACE HOSPITAL - WHERE NURSING IS AN ART

Our nurses at Grace are naturally proud of their professionalism. What makes them unique is the ease with which they combine their professional approach to nursing with genuine caring and personal warmth. We know there are other nurses who feel the same type of commitment and you know who you are. So will the real nurses step forward and contact: Jeanne Taylor, R.N., Nurse Recruitment Specialist, Employment Services, 3990 John R., Detroit, Michigan, 48201. (313) 494-8871.

We have current openings on all three shifts, full-time or part-time for RNs.

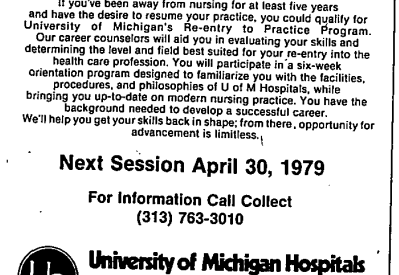
Thinking of Re-entering the Field?



Join our Re-entry to Practice Program

If you've been away from nursing for at least five years and have the desire to resume your practice, you could qualify for University of Michigan's Re-entry to Practice Program. Our career counselors will aid you in evaluating your skills and determining the level and the best suited for your re-entry into the health care profession. You will participate in a six-week orientation program designed to familiarize you with the facilities, procedures, and philosophies of U of M Hospitals, while bringing you up-to-date on modern nursing practice. You have the background needed to develop a successful career. We'll help you get your skills back in shape; from there, opportunity for advancement is limitless.
