333 Northern Property For Sale

George Griffith, founder of Trout Unlimited, stated "There is probably no other stretch of productive trout water in the world so close to large cities and yet in such a wilderness state." The main lodge, which overlooks the south branch of the AuSable River, near Grayling, Michigan, was built with the finest materials and craftsmanship. It has four guest suites all including their own fireplaces. There are also caretaker's quarters with three bedrooms and two baths, guide cottage, boat house, stable and various other out buildings.

Enjoy the privacy of over 300 acres with 1.2 miles of frontage on the south branch of the AuSable. Besides excellent fly fishing for German browns and brook trout, there is an abundance of deer and grouse. The second growth hardwoods and uncommonly large White and Norway pines make this a sportsman's dream come true. Offered at $650,000.
