Volkswagen's
New Low Price

$5990*

We can hear the jokes now: "Yeah, but how much extra is an engine?" Or, "But what if I want options like doors and seats?"

Well, all you skeptics, listen to this: $5990* is now the base sticker price for a two-door model L Volkswagen Rabbit—equipped with fuel injection, front-wheel drive, tinted glass, rear window defroster, upshift light, and much more.

So for all you who've held off from buying a Rabbit copy even though they used to be cheaper: Enjoy the last laugh.

*Mfr's sugg. retail price excluding tax, title, license, dealer prep and destination charges. Equipment levels may vary.

Nothing else is a Volkswagen.
