This is how much car you should expect for $15,000 today.

From the second-largest carmaker in Europe, comes a special edition of the Peugeot 505, the model 505 STI, powered by a fuel-injected gasoline engine.

The seats are upholstered in soft, supple leather.

The low-profile wheels are made of alloy, fitted with high-performance Michelin TRX radial tires.

Even the colors are special: a metallic claret and a classic black.

The $14,990* price of the Peugeot 505 STI also includes this impressive roster of equipment:

- Air conditioning, factory-installed
- Power-assisted steering
- Power-assisted 4-wheel disc brakes
- Cruise control
- Electric sunroof
- Electric windows
- Central locking system—a twist of the key locks all four doors and fuel-filler door
- Digital AM/FM 42-watt stereo radio with cassette player, scan tuning, and four speakers
- Automatic electric antenna
- Multi-adjustable driver's seat
- Tachometer
- Limited slip differential

The Peugeot 505 STI is fully equipped that there is only one option, a 3-speed automatic transmission ($570) in place of the 5-speed overdrive manual gearbox.

Also available are Peugeot 505 models with diesel, turbo-diesel, and fuel-injected gasoline engines, priced from $16,475 to $20,905*.
