Local family enjoys sailing

SID ROBBINS, owner of the Penny-Wise Discount Store on Grand River, was among the downtown merchants who urged city council to remove all the parking meters from the street.

A FORMER CITY council candidate, Robert "Dutch" Schulte, became affiliated with North Farmington Realty in the Kendallwood Professional Center. He was active in local real estate circles, having participated in many home sales in Farmington and Farmington Township.

A NEWSPAPER column, Kandallwood Komments, announced, "The Chuck Orr family of Pepermill Road have been enjoying sailing every Saturday during the summer. They were first-place winners in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club Regatta on July 6."

JULY 26, 1973

FARMINGTON POLICE recommended the Our Lady of Sorrows parking lot for persons planning to drive to the upcoming Founders' Festival fireworks. Spectators could view the display from the Board of Education lawn or from city park.

RELATIVES AND friends from as far away as Texas and Arizona gathered in Farmington to celebrate the 90th birthday of Mathilde Jorgensen. Among the celebrants were her four children with their husbands and wives, eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

TWO FREE MOVIES, "David and Lisa" and "Foreign Correspondent" were coming up at the Farmington Public Library on 12 Mile Road.

A FOUR-BEDROOM ranch house on "a large treed lot" was advertised for $48,500. Another Farmington house in an "exclusive subdivision" was on the block for $48,200.

Agency picks copywriter

Richard W. Henderson has recently joined the Thompson Advertising Production of Farmington Hills as a copywriter.

Henderson, a native of Michigan, graduated from Oakland University in 1981 with a degree in communications and did freelance copywriting prior to joining TAP.He is married and resides in Rochester.

The Thompson agency represents several automotive marine and industrial aftermarket clients and a group of medical facilities in Southeast Michigan.
