HUNTERS WITH LICENSES DO NOT NEED PERMITS

Lansing, Dec. 2—Hunters equipped with hunting licenses do not need a "gun permit" during the open hunting season. However, such a permit is needed to carry firearms in the game areas of the state during the closed seasons.

This is the way the office of the attorney general interprets the 1931 amendments to the hunting laws, in an opinion given to the Department of Conservation.

The attorney general's office classes the open hunting season as being from October 1 to January 31 and the closed season from January 31 to October 1.
