LET FAITH HELP YOU MAKE THOSE MAJOR DECISIONS.

Many times in our lives we come to the crossroads of having to make a major and usually irreversible decision. It might be something like whether to buy a new car or have the old one repaired; or whether to change our job or our residence; or it might be a situation involving a serious illness, where our doctor gives you several treatment options from which you must make a choice. In any case, you have to decide, and then resolve not to worry about the wisdom of what you have chosen. Attend your House of Worship, both before and after rendering that decision; praying first for guidance and then for the courage to deal with whatever consequences may arise, knowing that God will be with you all the way.

Once a decision was made, I did not worry about it afterward.
-Harry S. Truman
