I approach my job as a professional and I am good at meeting the challenges of a high traffic sales floor. I work harder than most and it pays me well. My company provides me with a well designed marketing plan, great inventory and plenty of opportunity. I like working here because I know my customers get their money's worth. I earn $250,000+ and I'm not the highest paid in the company. I also have a superb benefit package, and I'm proud to be in the industry. If this sounds like you, we should talk.
