ROLL CALL REPORT

Lobbying vote split by party

Here's how Observer & Eccentric-area lawmakers were recorded on major roll call votes in the week ending May 8.

HOUSE

Yes to lobbying with government aid: By a vote of 222 for and 196 against, the House enabled recipients of Legal Services Corp. funding to lobby governments when their views are solicited. The amendment was attached to an authorization bill (HR 2039) for the 18-year-old program that provides legal representation for the poor. It derailed an attempt to deny Legal Services funding to those who lobby Congress or state legislatures.

A yes vote was to allow recipients of federal legal aid to lobby under certain conditions.

Michigan congressmen voting yes included: Rep. Dennis Hertel, D-Harper Woods, Rep. William Ford, D-Taylor, Rep. Sander Levin, D-Southfield.

Voting no: Rep. Carl Pursell, R-Plymouth, and Rep. William Broomfield, R-Birmingham.

No to spending unobligated defense money: The House passed, 412 for and 2 against, a Democratic bill (HR 4990) returning to the Treasury $5.8 billion appropriated by Congress for this fiscal year but not yet obligated. This came after the House rejected President Bush's alternative "rescission" package.

A key difference is that HR 4990 eliminates only one of two planned Seawolf submarines, while the administration opposes both subs. Built at Groton, Conn., each Seawolf is projected to cost $1.8 billion. Overall, HR 4990 rescinds $4.95 billion in defense spending, $734 million for domestic programs and $124 million earmarked for foreign aid.

A yes vote was to pass the Democratic-drafted rescission bill.

Michigan congressmen voting yes included: Carl Pursell, Dennis Hertel, William Ford, Sander Levin.

Not voting: William Broomfield.

Dems back Seawolf submarine: By a vote of 150 for and 266 against, the House rejected a rescission bill sent to Capitol Hill by President Bush. Its savings were comparable to those in the competing Democratic-drafted bill (above). But in a clash of priorities, the White House wanted to kill the Seawolf submarine program that the Democratic bill kept alive at the cost of at least $3.6 billion.

A yes vote supported President Bush's rescission plan.

Michigan congressmen voting yes were: Carl Pursell, William Broomfield.

Voting no: Dennis Hertel, William Ford, Sander Levin.

SENATE

Yes to Seawolf submarine: By a vote of 46 for and 52 against, the Senate refused to delete nearly $2.4 billion in fiscal 1992 funding for two Seawolf nuclear attack submarines.

A yes vote was to kill the Seawolf.

Levin and Riegle both voted no.

Looking for someone special?
A bowling partner, a travel companion or someone to share your life?

Every Monday and Thursday your Observer & Eccentric Newspapers will publish a PERSONAL SCENE directory—listings of people who are looking for people.

PERSONAL SCENE has five classifications: men seeking women, women seeking men, people who want to share sports interests, seniors who need companionship and people who need someone with whom to travel.

PERSONAL SCENE also takes advantage of our electronic age. When you've composed your five-line listing, which will run free for eight issues, call 591-0900 and our ad takers will be happy to help you word your message so that it can be heard by people who are interested in what you've said in your ad. You will never receive unwanted calls at your home, all responses will be recorded and left in your electronic PERSONAL SCENE message center. Note: It will cost $1.49 per minute to check the responses to your listing.

Readers who wish to respond to a listing in our PERSONAL SCENE directory may use a touch-tone telephone to call 1-900-454-8088 and the special number which will appear in each ad. The cost to do this is also $1.49 per minute.

To place your own PERSONAL SCENE ad, call 591-0900 or send us this coupon:

Print your ad here. The first five lines are FREE. (Space provided equals one five line ad) There is a one time $10.00 charge for each additional line. Use additional sheet of paper if necessary. Please include payment for any additional lines.

All ads must be paid in advance.

Be creative, honest, include age range, lifestyle, self description, interests and the type of person you are looking for.
