Mercy whips Trenton, wins 4th in row

SOCCER

Farmington Hills Mercy won its fourth consecutive game in girls soccer Tuesday, blanking host Trenton 9-0.

"Things are beginning to click," Mercy coach Deepak Shivraman said. "The players are alert to what they have to do. One really nice surprise is the play of (freshman) Sienna DeAgostino and Beth Ziobro in the back."

Tania Maciuce, Ziobro and Heather Richards scored two goals apiece to lead the Marlins, 8-3-3 overall. Margaret Wirth rounded out the scoring. The Marlins outshot Trenton 17-4.

Goalkeeper Amy Wutroba helped preserve the shutout after starter Beth Chmielewski was injured. Chmielewski collided with an opposing player and needed five stitches to close a cut under an eye, according to Shivraman.

Mercy won its third straight Catholic League game Monday, 3-0 over Madison Heights Bishop Foley. Wirth and Erin Porth scored the goals, with assists from Lynette Santiago and Carrie Dziadosz.

Farmington stayed with No. 6-ranked Plymouth Salem until the very end Monday before losing 4-2 in a Western Lakes Activities Association game.

The Falcons tied early in the second half when Jesse Vitlor made it 1-1. Kim Popyk later closed a 3-1 Salem lead to one goal, but Kris Goff scored her second for the Rocks with a minute left. Eunia Lee and Sue Gibson assisted on the Farmington goals.

The Falcons are 0-2-1 in the Lakes Division and 5-3-1 overall. Salem clinched a tie for the division title with Livonia Stevenson, both with 3-0-1 records.

Ali Lord scored the lone goal for North Farmington in a 9-1 loss to Stevenson Monday, giving the Raiders a 1-0 lead after five minutes and raising her season total to 17.

Shannon Wilkinson, Ragen Coyne and Mo Drabicki scored two apiece for the Spartans, 9-1-1 overall. Stevenson led 2-1 at halftime. North is 3-5-1 and 2-5-1 in the WLAA.

"They're getting some good players there, and it will help their program," Stevenson coach Mary Kay Hussey said of the Raiders. "(Lord) has a tremendous shot; she's a true striker."

Chiefs nail down WLAA division title

A tie was good enough for Plymouth Canton since that was all it needed to nail down the Western Division title in Western Lakes Activities Association girls soccer Monday.

The Chiefs, who lost on the division and the WLAA three years ago, finished 4-0-1 following a 1-1 draw with visiting Northville.

Canton, ranked second in Class A and still unbeaten, improved to 8-0-2 in the league and 10-0-2 overall. The Chiefs will play either Livonia Stevenson or Plymouth Salem for the WLAA championship Wednesday, May 13.

"If we played Stevenson and their all-stater (Ragen Coyne) is back, it will be a different ballgame than last time," said Canton coach Don Smith, referring to a 3-0 victory over the Spartans. He added: "She's a good player, but one player can't control the whole ballgame."

Northville scored first Monday, but the Chiefs tied it two minutes before halftime with an unassisted goal by Alyson Noune, who scored from a restart 25 yards away.

Canton outshot the No. 5-rated Mustangs 12-2 in the first half and 19-10 for the game. Northville scored only the fourth goal of the season against Canton keeper Juri Welchans.

"They played tough; they didn't give us an awful lot," Smith said. "Even though we had scoring opportunities, they were coming right after us and those aren't always easy."

As has been the case so many times this year, the weather was bad and the game played on a muddy field.

"We weren't running real well tonight," Smith said.
