Producer tackles topics of social relevance

CABLE CONNECTION

LARK SAMOUELIAN

Denise Swape began producing shows for television as a volunteer with the Novi Jaycees. Through the years, she found her role as wife and mother was adapted to her commitment to creating television of social significance.

Her most recent program is entitled "A Powerful Path: The Shirley Carter Story." It is a "video presentation of the life and struggles of Shirley Carter, an African-American mother, who, despite handicaps, marched 3,700 miles in nine months for global peace and disarmament, both in Russia and the U.S. She now works in Philadelphia on behalf of the disabled and homeless."

The executive producer is Aaron Ike Krasner, the director is Terry Kelley and Denise Swape is the producer. "A Powerful Path" may be seen on Channel 12 June 24 at 2:30 p.m., June 25 at 8 p.m., June 29 at 1 p.m. and July 1 at 8:30 p.m.

Denise emphasizes that understanding the perimeters of Community Access is difficult and to pursue challenging projects one must be prepared to ask questions and learn the ropes by being self motivated.
