Caesars topples Delwal

BY RAY SETLOCK
STAFF WRITER

Little Caesars coach John Moratitis said he used to be mellow when it came to removing pitchers.

"I'd leave guys in there forever," he said. "I'd let the pitchers bail themselves out."

Recently, Moratitis developed a new attitude, similar to that of Detroit Tigers' skipper Sparky Anderson (also dubbed "Captain Hook").

Moratitis pulled starter Jim Solak in the fifth inning Wednesday, but not before he allowed seven runs.

Dave Roman, a product of Livonia Franklin High and a sophomore-to-be at Henry Ford Community College, came on and blanked first-place Delwal over the final 2⅓ innings, preserving a 9-7 Livonia Collegiate Baseball win at Ford Field.

"It used to be that I'd go with that guy forever," Moratitis said. "But now I have no problem pulling a guy late in the game."

Solak cruised through the first four innings, blanking Delwal. But four hits and a pair of errors in the fifth proved costly.

The big blow in the fifth was a two-run triple from Delwal outfielder Noah Bremen.

"Everything was going fine and then they started hitting singles," Moratitis said. "Then we threw some balls away. It doesn't make you happy when you almost blow a 9-0 lead."

Solak isn't entirely to blame, considering just three of the seven Delwal runs were earned.

Caesars tallied all nine of its runs in the fourth inning, sparked by Jerry Shippe's bases loaded triple. Aaron Mach chipped in with a two-run single. He was 4-for-4. Caesars collected 11 hits.

Jason Valente suffered the loss for Delwal, hurling four innings. He was relieved by Bill McCaig and Derek Wirebaugh.

Local bowler seeks spot on Team USA

10-PIN ALLEY

AL HARRISON

It's a long way from Troy to San Diego, but that's the road to be traveled by three winning bowlers, who will be among 25 men and 16 women from around the state competing for spots on Team USA.

The state eliminations for the final spots will be held June 27-28 at Bowl One Lanes in Troy.

The bowlers competing are the winners of the Team USA qualifying rounds held at their own local bowling centers.

Among the competitors will be Farmington Hills standout Tamika Glenn, who is competing as a junior but is trying to fill the lone spot open for women. Glenn will face stiff competition from Cora Fiebig, a Hall-of-Famer from Bowl One Lanes.

Larry Franz of Redford will be going for one of the two spots open for men. He will be challenged by Kelly Bennett (Auburn Hills), Dave Bernhardt, Bob Guike, Nick Wasinger, Jr., Rick McCardy and Mark Robey.

Another female, Karen Terry, who moved to Southfield from California, will attempt to make the squad. If all goes well, she'll be heading back from where she came.

The opening ceremonies will take place at 11:45 a.m. June 27. Competition will begin at 12:15 p.m. The bowling on June 28 will begin at 9:45 a.m.

• For bowlers who would like some competitive events, there are several smaller scale tournaments happening right in the home area.

One such event is the Elliminator singles tournament, which is held each Monday during the summer at Fiesta Lanes in Westland.

The $15 entry fee includes prize money, jackpots and high qualifiers. First Place is worth $100, based on 16 bowlers. Use the 1990-91 average or if 10 pins higher, use the 1991-92 figure. For more information call 722-1450.

• Each year, the top area bowler is honored as king of the male bowlers. This year's king is Paul Graizer of Westland. The honor is based on points amassed in seasons competition, averages and honor scores. Grauzer had 75 points to lead all male bowlers.
