Let Us Keep The Faith Through The Summer Months

For most children, school's out for the summer, and by now you must have made your vacation plans. They can range from a simple campout to a sojourn in a big city; but wherever you go, make sure that your children will not forget the faith they learned in Sunday school during the rest of the year.

If you're in a city or town, attend your House of Worship, or whatever kind it has. If you're camping out, you can teach your children about the wonders of God's creations, as they look at the trees, wildlife, mountains or whatever is there.

If possible, take your Bible along and read to your children from it every day. In any case, this will help them to remember what they learned when Sunday school resumes in the Fall.

We can't give our children the future ...but we can give them the present.
— Kathleen Norris

"Bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord."
— Ephesians 6:4
