Pitcher records no-hitter

Jessica Brubaker pitched a no-hitter Thursday for the 11-and-under Compuware in the Waterford fast-pitch softball league.

Brubaker, daughter of North Farmington softball coach Dave Brubaker, struck out 13 and walked three as Compuware mercied Morrells 17-0 in five innings.

Brubaker (Commerce Township) also had two hits and two RBI as did teammates Brandy Dills and Lisa Copeland (Orchard Lake).

Kristi Marazalec (West Bloomfield) had two hits, three RBI and two runs, Courtney Dye (Walled Lake) two hits, three runs and one RBI.

Other team members are Rebecca Land, Emily Hallman, Katie Albert, Lindsay Simko, Nicole Tucker, Jennifer O'Rourke and Dana Falvo (Northville/Sorrows).

Brubaker was the winning pitcher Thursday in the second game of an Incredible Girls Fast-Pitch League doubleheader, too.

She pitched the last 4⅓ innings of a 17-11 victory by the Farmington Hills Diamonds over the Livonia Lancers, allowing six hits. She struck out four and walked eight.

Mickey Spisz, Lynn Zelasko and Amy St. Charles had two hits apiece. Spisz also had three RBI and St. Charles two. Zelasko scored three runs, Ellen Berman and St. Charles two each.

Spisz pitched a three-hit victory and had two RBI in the first game, which the Diamonds won 8-5.

Wendy Roy had an RBI single, Zelasko and Kelly Brannack had a hit and scored a run each.

Cobras extend win streak

The North Farmington-West Bloomfield Cobras started with a pair of victories Friday in the Great Lakes Baseball Classic in Grand Ledge.

The Cobras defeated a pair of Illinois teams to begin round-robin play, 8-1 over Naperville and 8-4 over DeKalb.

Tim Morris pitched a two-hit complete game against Naperville, and Eric Pierce hit his second solo home run in as many days.

Brian Pehoski pitched a no-hitter over five innings to win the second game in which Pat Curran drove in two runs.

NFWB, 18-8 overall and in the midst of a five-game win streak Friday, had three more round-robin games to play Saturday and Sunday against Grand Ledge, Dearborn and Southfield.

The Cobras blanked Novi 3-0 Thursday in a Little Caesars Mickey Mantle game. Justin Bright had two hits and two RBI, and Pierce hit a solo homer.

Sterling Mintzer pitched six innings, allowing only two hits and no walks, to earn the victory. Matt Sullivan retired the side in the seventh with three straight strikeouts.

■ AMERICAN LEGION

Ron Salomonson pitched a three-hitter Wednesday as Farmington Post 346 defeated host Waterford 11-2 in an American Legion baseball game.

He struck out 10 and walked two and helped his cause with an RBI.

Dale Domas drove in two runs with a double, Ed Kennedy one. Matt Woolf had two hits and scored three runs, Matt Groom two hits and two runs.

Andy Sill, John Wroe and Groom added one RBI each, and Aaron Cagnon also scored two runs.

Kennedy pitched a complete game Friday as Post 346 improved its record to 9-1 Friday with a 13-4 rout of the visiting Shelby Phillies.

He allowed only three hits, struck out 11 and walked three over seven innings.

Jake Lawson hit a pair of two-run homers, and Joe Pesci had two hits, including a three-run double. Aaron Cagnon and Matt Woolf also had two hits each.

Cagnon scored three runs and had two RBI while Woolf, John Wroe and Kennedy added single RBI. Lawson also scored three runs, Pesci and Andy Sill two apiece.

■ PONY TOURNAMENT

North Farmington-West Bloomfield's Pony baseball team placed first in its division and third overall July 1-3 in the Howell 14-and-under tournament.

NFWB began with wins over Plymouth Canton (18-6), Thornapple Travel (4-3) and Livonia (14-8). NFWB defeated Howell 6-5 to reach the semifinals but lost to Monroe 10-2.
