POLICE/FIRE CALLS

Listed below are some of the Farmington-area police incidents, fire calls and court cases reported during the past week.

EMBEZZLEMENTS

Cash and merchandise worth $17,000 was taken from CBS1 on 12 Mile between Jan. 1 and March 15

A payroll check for $2,738.70 was improperly issued from Swerby Staffing, Inc. on 12 Mile in Farmington Hills March 27.

ARMED ROBBERY

A Farmington Hills woman, 41, was robbed at knifepoint after she pulled into her parking space at the Walnut Creek Apartments on Middlebelt in Farmington Hills at 8:45 p.m. April 14. The woman said as she was pulling in, a green Chrysler was pulling in two spaces away. A black man, 30, 6-feet and 190 pounds, with blue jeans a blue jacket and gold-rimmed glasses came up to her, pointed a 6-to-8 inch steak knife and demanded her purse. The woman asked if he would just take the money and he said yes. But after she gave him $5, the man said it wasn't enough. At that point, another car pulled into the lot, the man left with the $5 in his car onto Middlebelt. A similar incident was reported in Southfield later.

SHOPLIFTING

A set of pear shaped wedding rings worth $1,200 was stolen from Howard's on Eight Mile after a woman looked at some rings and put a deposit on a set April 14.

FIRES

Farmington Hills firefighters from Station 1 responded to an apartment fire at the Windemere Apartments on Independence in Farmington Hills at 8:15 p.m. April 15. Police officers helped evacuate the building but could not get in the unit on fire because of heavy smoke. Firefighters searched the rest of the area, and all residents were out of the building. Firefighters found a small fire on a bed and extinguished the fire. An extension cord with a lamp and clock radio were in the area of origin, and were possible causes of the fire. Damage to the property was $30,000 and damage to contents was $10,000.

CO ALARM

Farmington Hills firefighters from Station 4 responded to a CO alarm at 4:10 p.m. April 14 at a residence on Lancaster in Farmington Hills. The homeowner was outside and said no one had suffered any symptoms from carbon monoxide. Firefighters found a high CO reading near the hot water heater and turned it off.

EARLY ARRIVAL

Farmington Hills firefighters responded to a call from a woman in labor on Jefferson Court in Farmington Hills at 1:29 p.m. April 13. The woman said she was due and contractions were less than two minutes apart and her water had broken. She was taken by ambulance to Providence Hospital, but the baby was born en route at 2 p.m. Baby and mother were fine.

FIRE DEPARTMENT RUNS

Farmington Hills firefighters made 90 runs for the week of April 10-16. Of those, 46 (51 percent) were for medical emergencies, eight were for service calls, four were for fires and eight were for personal injury accidents.

BREAK-INS

The rear door of Klancy's on Grand River was pried open causing $200 in damage, telephone and TV lines were cut ($100) and a VCR and $300 in cash were stolen April 15.

The windows were broken on a green 1995 Ford Explorer ($250) on Fox Club and a $200 radar detector was stolen April 14-16.

A $1,200 Panasonic camera was stolen from a red 1995 Ford van at the Old Orchard Theater on Orchard Lake in Farmington Hills after the rear window was broken ($318).

The rear window was smashed on a 1987 Chevy Cavalier parked at the Brass Pointe restaurant on Orchard lake April 16 and an AM/FM cassette stereo and a leather jacket ($550) were stolen.

The rear door nobs were smashed with concrete pillars and slats were taken from a wooden fence ($500) at N.J.H. Consultants on Hills Tech in Farmington Hills April 15-16.

A man described as black, 5 feet 10, 160 pounds, between 30-40 and wearing a purple jogging suit was seen opening a cash drawer at Kmart on Orchard Lake April 17, from which $216 was stolen.

The rear cab window was broken ($75) on a red 1993 Ford pickup parked on Dover Hill in Farmington Hills and 30 Casette tapes ($450) and a $150 Whistler radar detector were stolen April 16-17.

VANDALISM

The top of a 1988 white Ford Mustang Convertible parked on Wescott Crescent in Farmington Hills was slashed causing $1,000 in damage April 15.

A BB or pellet gun was used to shoot out a front window ($250) at a residence on Grayfield in Farmington Hills April 12-13.

INDECENT EXPOSURE

Farmington Hills police arrested a Detroit man, 77, for indecent exposure at 1:10 p.m. April 15 near the T.J. Maxx on Orchard Lake in Farmington Hills after he urinated next to a parked silver 1994 Ford Taurus in which he had been a passenger.

THEFTS

A 20-inch Sony TV worth $343.19 was stolen from a residence on Shiawassee in Farmington Hills April 6-10.

A $600 Audiovox portable phone was stolen from a booth at Denny's restaurant on Sinacola in Farmington Hills April 15.

DRUNKEN DRIVING

Farmington Hills police arrested a White Lake man, 21, for drunken driving on eastbound M-5 at Grand River April 16. The man had been driving a purple 1995 Ford Mustang at 82 mph in a 55 mph zone. He had a blood alcohol level of .13 percent. A level of .1 percent is considered too drunk to drive in Michigan.

Farmington police arrested a Hills man, 23, for drunken driving on Shiawassee near Warner April 16. Police stopped the 1989 Chevrolet after it was seen drifting. The driver had a blood alcohol level of .13 percent.

ASSAULT

A Farmington Hills woman, 50, told police that her former husband, 55, came to her Section 36 home and threatened her with a loaded gun and then damaged her 1981 Mercedes. Her son wrestled the gun away from the man.

A Farmington Hills woman, 30, told Hills police that her former boyfriend, 34, grabbed her and pushed her during an argument at her Cora Avenue residence in Farmington Hills April 14.

A man became angry and spit at a clerk at Farmington TV after he was told he would have to pay a $35 service charge April 17.

AUTO THEFT

A gray 1980 Pontiac Grand Prix worth $2,000 was stolen from the Garden Court Apartments on Eight Mile in Farmington Hills April 16-17.

DRUGS

Farmington Hills police arrested a Hills man, 29, and a Ypsilanti woman, 29, for possession of marijuana April 17 on eastbound Grand River west of Halsted. Officers stopped the brown 1977 Olds the man was driving for a loud exhaust. After receiving permission to search the car, officers found a pipe with marijuana and a Baggie with a small amount of marijuana.
