Went to a garden party . . .

The Prudential Town Center's indoor arboretum was the scene of a "Sweet Sixteen" party last week for Jan Goldstein of Southfield. The new Southfield center, located at Evergreen and Civic Center Drive, is open for other groups looking to communicate with nature while staying inside. (Staff photo)

How to get news in the paper

When you submit information for a news article in the Southfield Eccentric keep in mind the following pointers. By following these recommendations, you will save delays and avoid errors.

- Be sure you give us the complete information. It's better to submit too much information than too little.
- When an individual's name is to be used in an article, be sure to give us his first and last name. For instance, you and the members of your church may know that Rev.

Smith's first name is John, but our other readers may not.

Be sure that the information is readable. Illegible information is the prime cause of errors in any newspaper.

Be sure to include your own name and telephone number. If you have accidentally omitted information or if we cannot read your writing, we will still have a means of obtaining it.

*If you plan to submit a photograph with an article, be sure that it is a good one.

LCC holds hearing

The liquor Control Commission will hold a public hearing on rules it is proposing to govern standards of conduct and attire of patrons, entertainers and employees of on-premise licensed establishments and the visual displays permitted in such establishments.

The hearing will be at 10 a.m. Wednesday, March 16 in the Law Building Auditorium, 325 West Ottawa, Lansing.

An on-premise licensee is a bar, restaurant, hotel, or other business selling beer, wine or liquor for consumption on the premises.

The commission's proposed rules would forbid persons in these establishments to expose specified parts of the body, or exhibit other types of nudity prohibited by law or local ordinance; prohibit performance or simulation of various sexual acts, and ban films, television, slides, or other electronic reproduction of such acts.

Persons may present data and views orally or in writing at the hearing. Copies of the proposed rules are available from Larry Ziate, aide to the Commission, 7150 Harris Drive, Lansing, Mich. 48909.
