
Romance blossomed at Birmingham's Fall Spectacular

The young woman who awoke from dreams of a romantic rendezvous in Birmingham, soon found the love of her life; and after a morning workout, a hard day at the office, a spontaneous proposal and tea at the Townsend, she was destined to be a beautiful bride.

The best fashion and style of Birmingham was celebrated at Wednesday's Fall Spectacular to benefit Beaumont Hospital's Pediatric Cancer Survivors Scholarship Fund.

And the imaginative storyline was played out on the runway in the newest fall fashions and hairstyles for men, women and children Familiar Birmingham locales flashed on large screens so the audience was constantly reminded that dreams can come true right in their own back yards.

SLEIGHT OF HAND

Ten million illegibly addressed envelopes end up in the dead-letter office each year. Doctors' scribbling causes problems for nurses, pharmacists and patients. Handwriting education is in a sad state, and the admonition to PLEASE PRINT on most forms testifies to our lack of confidence in handwriting legibility. While some people blame the computer for the demise of handwriting, calligraphic instructor William A. Bostick is working to revive and preserve writing as an art. He has recently published the second edition of his third calligraphy manual. Back to the Second Basic R – Italic is a manual for adults and children to learn the handwriting of the Italian Renaissance. It includes a ball point pen and the Sheaffer calligraphy fountain pen. It teaches the hand of such Renaissance greats as Michelangelo, Leonardo da Vinci and Raphael. To order, send $10.95 ($8.76 for calligraphers) to La Stampa Calligrafica, Box 209, Franklin, MI 48025 or call (248) 646-5176.

SPIRIT OF GIVING

Grants from Hudson's totaling $560,000 in the areas of social action and the arts have been awarded to 30 metro-Detroit non-profit organizations. The three focus areas for Hudson's community giving program include: child abuse prevention, youth self-sufficiency and education through the arts. Grant-making decisions were made by a committee of store employees. The largest community giving committee award went to Christians United in Business Endeavors for youth career and entrepreneurial programs. Arts and cultural leadership grants totaled $260,000.

COUTURE BENEFITS KIDS

Orchards Children's Services, a private, non-profit child welfare agency that services foster children in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties, raised over $10,000 from the Neiman Marcus Fall '98 Couture Collection Fashion Show on Sept. 18. Proceeds from the event will help underwrite the purchase of toys and clothing for Orchards upcoming Toy Drive.

Where can I find?

This feature is dedicated to helping readers locate sources for hard-to-find merchandise. If you've seen any of the items in your retail travels (or basement), please call Where Can I Find? (248) 901-2555. Slowly and clearly, leave your name, number and message, and you should see your input in Sunday's column. Thank you.

What We Found:

Found Hallmark's Frosty Friends ornaments for Tom.

Jeanne called to say she collects pattern books and might have one with an oval tablecloth in one of them.

Mary Ellen called with a tip for people looking for old, used items such as the game Pollyanna, Avon bottles, Jacques Cousteau films or any old films, Sunbeam Mixmaster, etc. They can be found on the Web at www.ebay.com (it is an auction place).

Several people called to say they have plant poles and a milk door for Melissa.

Rose has a juicer for the Sunbeam Mixmaster and an old record player.

Kirk's Castille soap can also be found at Hiller's Market on Five Mile & Haggerty roads in Plymouth, and at J&J IGA on Walton and Perry in Pontiac.
