Wit defines decor pieces

Sound and sight: Available at Target stores, Michael Graves stainless steel tea kettle, $34.99, not only produces a whistling sound but has a red coach whistle for a spout.

BY NICOLE STAFFORD
SPECIAL EDITOR

Wit and whimsy are ready to come home, literally.

World renowned architect Michael Graves, who is known for the humor he brings to his designs, has hatched a line of clever and contemporary home decor products for Target.

Not only are the some 200 pieces witty and downright artistic – Graves takes cues from classicism and modernism – they're also reasonably priced.

One piece, an alder wood picture frame that rests on a tripod of what appears to be rocks, was inspired by an ancient Pompeian artifact and sells for $12.99.

Graves' stainless steel tea kettle with a bright red spout in the shape of a coach's whistle has an aluminum base and is priced at $34.99.

Other pieces in the collection, which debuted at Target stores in January, include gardening accessories, kitchen tools, outdoor furniture, picture frames, clocks and other home decor items. Prices run $3.99 to $479.95.

Egg and toast: A bright blue egg-shaped handle embellishes Michael Graves two-slice, wide-slot toaster, $39.99 at Target.

FACE SEARCH

Hudson's and Borghese cosmetics company have teamed up to search for a woman whose look and style capture the Borghese way of life.

The Italian cosmetics manufacturer is seeking a stylish, sexy and confident woman to star in an upcoming promotion. And the Borghese cosmetic counters at local Hudson's stores are taking makeover appointments with international makeup artist William Abrens as part of the search.

After each makeover, interested candidates will be photographed for the contest selection. The winner will travel to New York for the national promotion's photo shoot.

The contest makeovers will be held at Hudson's stores at: Oakland Mall in Troy, (248) 597-2341, The Somerset Collection in Troy, (248) 816-4125 Twelve Oaks Mall in Novi, (248) 344-6888 and Lakeside Mall in Sterling Heights, (810) 566-2746.

ROMA SPOSA CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY

In celebration of its first anniversary, Roma Sposa, a Birmingham retailer, at 722 N. Old Woodward, that specializes in custom and handmade European bridal fashions is offering a 50 percent discount on selected sample gowns, head pieces and veils through the month of April.

CAR TOUR

"Car and Driver" magazine's 10 Best Tour Across America is visiting the Somerset Collection in Troy starting April 9 and ending April 18. The exhibit is part of a 20-city tour across the country.

The 10 Best award, initiated in 1983, is given to 10 car models based on value for the price, suitability for intended purpose and targeted customer satisfaction.

The exhibit will include interactive displays with detailed information from manufacturers, "Car and Driver's" model test results and product specialists who will talk about each vehicle.

The BMW 3281, Dodge Intrepid, Chrysler 300M, Honda Accord and Chevrolet Corvette are five of the 10 featured vehicles.
