Injured Her Back

Mrs. William Ringel fell from a stool Thursday morning and badly injured her back.

Mrs. Ringel went into the basement of their home on Oakland road to open a window, and in stepping upon a stool, put her foot too near the edge and the stool tipped, throwing her over backwards, striking on her back across a kettle.

She was carried to a couch and a physician called. Examination proved that no bones were broken, but Mrs. Ringel suffered a good deal of pain and received a severe strain which will lay her up for some time.

Quietly Married

Last Saturday afternoon at the home of Rev. Davis, pastor of the Baptist church of Bedford, occurred the marriage of Elmer Hobbins and Miss Hattie Freeman of Nichols Siding.

The young couple were attended by Miss Velma Hobbins, as bridesmaid, and Nathan Freeman as best man. Miss Freeman was attired in a white georgette gown, while the bridesmaid wore pink georgette.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hobbins took a short trip, returning on Monday to the home of the groom's parents, where they will reside for the present.

The young people are well and favorably known and their friends wish for them the best of all there is and for their future happiness and prosperity.

Rev. Stange to Leave

Rev. A. C. Stange of the Evangelical church in this village and at Clarenceville, after a pastorate here of over 10 years, has given in his resignation, which has been accepted, and he will leave about September 1st.

A meeting of the church board was held last evening at which the application of a new preacher was considered, but too late for us to record their decision this week.

As we understand the situation the church board will endeavor to secure a pastor who will speak alternately in English and German.

Rev. Stange is well known to nearly everybody in this section, and has many friends who will regret the departure of the jolly, good-natured German minister.

Michigan Mortality

There were 3,701 deaths reported to the department of state as having occurred in the state of Michigan during the month of May. This number corresponds to an estimated population of 2,100,000.

In addition to the above there were 250 stillbirths returned as deaths.

There were 6,339 births returned to the department as having occurred during the month of May. This number corresponds to an estimated population of 2,900,000.

A decrease of 369 births is noted as compared with the month immediately preceding. In addition to the above, there were 250 stillbirths reported as births.

Boys' Camp

A movement is going forward to give the Oakland county boys an outing at the Washtenaw County Y. M. C. A. camp grounds, which is about an hour's trip from Pontiac.

The total cost of this camping trip should not exceed $10 and any boy over twelve years of age representing any boys' club, Sunday school class, etc., will be admitted.

Application should be made to the County Y. M. C. A. headquarters in Pontiac at once as only a limited number of boys can be accommodated. Detailed announcement as to dates and actual expenses and articles that each boy should take with him will be made later.

George H. Kimball, Jr., Secretary, County Y. M. C. A.

M. W. Graes and family are spending the week at Miller's cottage, Walled Lake—Redford Record.

The best road to Farmington is down the Seven-Mile road 5 miles to the brick store and turn north. Good roads all the way. Distance 7 1/2 miles. The mile extra by this route is more than offset by the splendid cement and state gravel road.—Northville Record.

It is understood from reliable sources that the D. U. R. is intending to pave between the tracks from Monroe avenue to in front of the Wayne garage. This will do away with the "bumps" over the cross over in front of the waiting room, a fact that will be appreciated by drivers of automobiles.—Wayne Weekly.

For sixty miles along the highway from Syracuse to Utica, the state of New York is to plant trees to commemorate the brave deeds of its sailor and soldier. Both for beauty and for service to the community such a memorial is especially appropriate; pleasing and resting the eye, shielding the road from sun and wind and snow, it will literally keep green thru many generations the memory of those young men.—Oxford Leader.

John Gallagher, a farmer living in Commerce township a half mile from the village of Wixom, was recently killed by a bolt of lightning while dragging in a field on his farm Friday afternoon during the heavy thunder and electrical storm. The crown of Gallagher's hat was torn off and his shoes were torn from his body, but the body itself was not badly burned. The shock knocked both of the horses down and they laid where they fell for fully 20 minutes before recovering enough to get on their feet.—South Lyon Herald.

It is officially announced that New York capitalists will furnish the seven million dollars needed to construct, equip and operate the new hotel that is to be erected facing East Grand Circus Park. The old time residents of Detroit and some of its newspapers should begin study up on plans to prevent this new capital from earning an honest living," commented a new Detroit, only having resided here a dozen years. "It would be a shame for dividends to go to the eastern men who are backing an enterprise at which local capital should be placed. The transportation would have been solved long ago if honest dollars were given the same consideration as honest labor." Detroit is a little like Mexico; it needs sufficient new blood to swamp the old banditry-clique, newspapers included.—Detroit Courier.

The Last Show

Saturday night will be the last moving picture show in Farmington until the new theater is completed, when June Elvidge will appear in "The Appearance of Evil."

Preparations are going forward for the new block and theater, and the old building will soon be a "pile of boards."

When the new theater is completed Farmington people may look for an up-to-date picture house and high class pictures, so we are assured.

Home Nurses Graduate

The class in home nursing conducted by Mrs. Little, R. N., of Pontiac, held its final day Tuesday with a picnic dinner at the home of Mrs. Mae Crossman.

Out of an enrolled class of 20 members the following took the final examination: Mrs. Mae Crossman, Mrs. Martha Schroeder, Mrs. Clara Lapham, Mrs. Nellie Dickerson, Mrs. Bertha Steele, Mrs. Anna Cook, Mrs. Loesel Robinson, Miss Hazel Story, Miss Emma Gildemester and Miss Martha Stange.

Much satisfaction is expressed by those who took this course.

A class will be formed next fall if the required number of ladies wish to take the work. Names may be put to any member of the past class.

New Lumber and Coal Yard

The store building and property formerly known as the Fremont Barker property at Clarenceville has been purchased by the Grand River Lumber & Coal Co., of Redford, and will be used as a lumber and coal yard. A complete line of builders' hardware will be carried and everything in lumber will be stocked for prompt delivery.

The Grand River Lumber & Coal Company is connected with the Farmington Lumber & Coal Company of this village, and this new distributing point at Clarenceville will greatly facilitate the handling of the lumber and coal business in that fast growing community.

Twelve new houses are under construction near the proposed new yard, and fifteen more will be built this summer.

Coal will be handled from cars at Clarenceville by dumping from an elevated track in concrete pits, while at the Farmington yard a new electric driven conveyor has been installed for unloading.

Iceless Cooler for Porkers

Put the hogs in the "cooler" during the hot days—not as punishment, but to keep the heat from reducing daily gains in pork.

Home demonstration agents of the United States Department of agriculture and the State colleges have been demonstrating the iceless refrigerator, and these handy coolers are becoming very popular. The swine extension man in Mississippi, who is working in cooperation with the Federal department, is planning to put into practice the same principle used in the iceless refrigerator to keep hogs cool in summer.

The iceless refrigerator is made by inclosing a frame in canvas (flannel, burlap, or duck). A pan of water is placed on top and wicks are extended from the water over the sides of the pan and down the sides of the frame. The evaporation of the moisture in the wicks keeps the refrigerator cool. In applying this principle in the hog lot frame will be built to provide shade for the hogs and large burlap wicks will extend down the sides from containers which are placed on top and are filled with water. It is expected that the evaporation of the water will keep the hogs cool and thus enable them to make more economical gains during the summer months.

If tomatoes in the garden are not doing as well as they might, a handful of fertilizer around each hill will help a lot. Give them a little ammonia to start the plants and a little phosphate and a little potash for a quality.

From All Over

From our exchanges we read of many prize gardens being cared for by boys and girls, and some older people. Over in Parma, Jackson county, is reported a ripe tomato on June 13th.

A movement, inaugurated by a former Brighton boy, is being generally adopted throughout the county of placing a portrait of the late Theodore Roosevelt on the walls of every school room in America.

Uncle Sam is rapidly getting ready to "take stock." To put it more clearly, preparations are well along for the fourteenth general census to be taken in 1920. The last congress granted an appropriation for the work and a force of several hundred clerks is busy in the census bureau making the necessary preparations for the huge task, which must be accomplished in a few weeks. For this immense job, the bureau's regular force of about 400 employees will be expanded to 85,000 or more. The appropriation which congress has made for the work is $240,000. This amount covers also the ordinary expenses of the bureau during 1919.
