Area bowler enjoys hare-raising hobby

TEN-PIN ALLEY

AL HARRISON

A bowling ball and rabbit only have something in common if you miss a strike or a spare by a hare — unless your name is Pam Jones.

Livonia's Jones is an All-Star bowler and a rabbit show judge.

Pam has traveled across the USA for her other calling — and, besides judging, she breeds, raises and sells rabbits.

I will be writing about her in another section of this paper in time for Easter.

•Back by popular demand, the Bowling Ball Swap—Sell—Buy will take place Friday-Sunday, April 28-30, at Westland Bowl on Wayne Road between Ford and Warren roads.

The first such event took place last August and was a success despite taking place at a bad time of year.

If you have any good, late-model balls or other equipment you are no longer using, turn it into instant cash by bringing it in, tagging it and letting people buy.

For buyers, it's a terrific opportunity to get your hands on some good new equipment without having to pay those high prices we're seeing today for new balls.

Plugging and re-drilling will be available on the premises and lanes will be available to see if equipment that would be new to you fits your hand.

Each seller and buyer will receive a door prize coupon for every ball brought in or bought.

Westland bowl does not take any cut from those deals; they are doing this as a service to the bowling community.

For more information call (734) 722-7570.

•When your league begins planning for next season, take a good look at the Ultimate Bowling League (UBL) concept.

You can add a new dimension of enjoyment and better competition from top to bottom, trim the usual annual loss of members and keep interest at a higher level throughout the season.

Both the G.D.B.A. and the D.W.B.A. have designated staff personnel who will be able to explain the UBL to your league, how it works and how it will make bowling in your league more interesting.

Call the G.D.B.A. at 810-773-6360 or the D.W.B.A. at 810-773-3050 for more details.

•"A chip off the old block" is a time-worn cliche, but what could be a better way to describe 19-year-old Brent Kossick?

As many bowling fans know, Ken Kossick has been one of the area's premier bowlers for many years in the All-Stars at Thunderbird and elsewhere.

Now comes his son with a 300 game in the Wayne-Westland Youth Travel Classic at Super Bowl in Canton.

The Kossick family resides in Canton also, with younger brother Darren also competing in the W.Y.T.C.

Brent only needs 19 more perfect games to catch up with his dad.

•Congratulations to Matt Dalley of Plymouth for his 238-162 victory over Tom Rosso in the 2000 Midstates Masters 222 Division at the 300 Bowl in Pontiac.

Dalley wanted this win, especially after finishing second in the last tournament.

The next 222 tournament is set for Sunday, April 9, 2000 at Sunnybrook Lanes in Sterling Heights.

For more information call (313) 865-8449.

•The Great Lakes Senior Bowling Association has announced its upcoming schedule.

April 8 the association is at Eastgate Lanes in Oregon (Toledo) Ohio; May 13 it is at Bowlero Bowl in Windsor, Ont.; June 10 at Woodhaven Lanes in Woodhaven; and July 8th at Garden Lanes in Garden City.

The GLSBA is for Senior bowlers age 50 and up. For details or entry forms, call (734) 522-9315.
