BELIEF IN 'LUCKY PIECES' QUEUE IS SIGN OF BONDAGE

Superstition That Seems More General Now Than in the Days Before the Great War. Remarkable That Chinese Have Come to Look Upon It With a Degree of Pride. "That is my lucky piece," a veteran said, as he pulled a shabby little bit of metal out of his pocket with his regular small change. "That's a bullet that just grazed my ear and burrowed into a wall, right behind me." "What sort of luck has it brought you?" He laughed. "Six months in hospital from another bullet the very next day. . . . But I married the nurse, and she's a bit of good luck, you bet! I got into the habit of carrying this about; most all the boys carry a pocket piece of some kind for luck whether they believe in luck or not." One man always carries a half-dollar in an inside pocket by itself, so that if his spending pocket happens to get empty, it would not be altogether destitute. There is another who sews a $10 bill in the top pocket of every pair of trousers he buys. In that way he can never have the bad luck of forgetting to change his money when he changes his clothes. True, he might have the bad luck to forget to remove it when he sent the trousers to be pressed, but—as he philosophically expresses it—that would be good luck for the tailor. "No Leisure for Antismaterialism. "You never mention the high cost of living any more." "Too busy to talk about it! Hustling for the price!" Opened a Can. "That was really a fine poem the man wrote about your baked beans." "Yes. The poor fellow was hungry."

HAD LOST HOPE

But Doan's Effected a Complete Recovery After Other Remedies Failed. Now in Good Health. Mrs. J. A. Sittsworth, E. Bell Ave., Red Key, Ind., says: "Kidney trouble came on me suddenly and before I realized it I was in a critical condition. My body bloated and my feet and ankles swelled like toy balloons. The kidney secretions burned terribly in passage. My face puffed up and the flesh under my eyes and on my cheeks hung down in folds. I had smothering cough which I thought I would die. So much water had collected under my skin, I weighed 180 pounds, a gain of 45 pounds. My sight failed and little black specks passed before my eyes. I felt drowsy and was so nervous I couldn't stand the least noise. Rheumatic pains darted all through me and it felt as if every nerve in my body was affected. Medicine didn't help me and I had little hope or strength left. Finally I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they restored me to health. I am now well and strong." Doan's Kidney Pills.
