Cora Fiebig, captain of the Luxury Lanes team in the women's all star classics, earned a place among the nation's top bowlers last week in Miami, Fla.

She didn't win the Queen's title, the feature event of the annual tournament sponsored by the Women's International Bowling Congress.

But, she never will come closer. Winning her way into the finals against Paula Boxberger, holder of many national records, Cora put up a great battle before losing 191-176. It was only a superlative shot by her rival in the final frame that spelled Fiebig's downfall.

Coming into that frame, Cora, who admittedly was suffering from an attack of nerves, still had a chance to win. There was tension on every ball in the final game and the break came when Boxberger left up the 4-6.

This seemed to be the opening that Cora needed. Lady luck frowned on her, however, as Boxberger converted to win the game and the title.

But Cora will be long remembered for the battle she put up and is certain to be ranked among the nation's best when choices of all star teams are made.

TOM MCKAY'S GOEBEL TEAM turned in a fine performance last week to win the All-Star Cup Championship Tournament, the closing event of the all-star classic league season, at Thundershire Lanes.

This is the event that pits the six top teams in the classic in a one night competition to decide the title. Goebel won five of the six games, including the keenest competition of the year.

The lone defeat came when the team bowed to Mr. F's 1124-1087. Bob Strampe paced Mr. F's with a 243 game.

The tourney was a high scoring affair as the Windsor Bowling Sales team fashioned a 1200 game. Scott Loughland and Rick McCaffery, of the winning Goebel team, each turned in perfect games. The 300 game Loughland the individual honors with a 1465 count for the six games and a margin of 15 pins over McCaffery.

MIKE SMART waited until the last night of the league season at Woodland Lanes to take an honored place in the metro bowling fraternity.

He did it by linking games of 225, 214 and 228 for a 707 series.

Although he carries a 196 average, it was the second 700 series he rolled this season.

DON PLANTZ would like to bowl his first game over again in the closing night of the men's league at Plaza Lanes, and for a good reason.

He opened with a meager 139, then found the range for games of 206 and 247 for a 592 series.

Golfers swing for sweepstakes prize

The first National Sweepstakes and Hole-in-One Weekend, sponsored by Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Inc., will get under way this Saturday and Sunday (May 20-21) at a number of area golf courses.

Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Inc., will have volunteers at designated par-3 holes at selected golf courses. Golfers may register for the sweepstakes at those holes and may also try for the hole-in-one. First prize in the sweepstakes is a week for two at McCormick Golf Ranch in Scottsdale, Arizona. Hundreds of other prizes will also be awarded.

In addition to the sweepstakes, prizes of golf equipment will be presented for anyone scoring a hole-in-one at the designated holes. And there will be a closest-to-the-hole contest as well; any golfer driving his ball within two feet of the cup will also receive a prize.

Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Inc., presently in its 75th year, provides children from one-parent families with screened and matches adult volunteers. These volunteers spend at least two to five hours a week with their little brother or sister, providing them with friendship, support and guidance.

Proceeds from this event will go to support this organization.

Information concerning which golf courses are sponsoring this event can be obtained by calling Big Brother/Sisters at 273-9216.
