PHILIPPINE TELEPHONE SERVICE NOW UNIFIED

With the recent purchase by the Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company of the property of the Philippine Telephone & Telegraph Company, which includes the equipment and lines in Manila and suburbs, all of the private telephone interests on the island of Luzon have now been consolidated. The property purchased represents the most modern and complete automatic telephone system in the Far East.

The Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company now has in operation 700 kilometers (about 435 miles) of long distance telephone circuits on the island of Luzon, and is rapidly extending its lines to all of the important municipalities. Radio telephone tests have been made between Manila, Iloilo, and Cebu, and as soon as satisfactory service can be maintained, will be opened to the public between these points.
