MR. AND MRS. PETE POLK

Turk-Polk Wed In Redford Church

Joan Turk became the bride of Pete Polk recently in a candlelight ceremony at St. Mary's of Redford Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Turk, Wakenden, Redford Township. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Polk, Detroit.

The bride wore a gown of white peau-de-soie and alencon lace. She carried a corsage of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Michael Schulenberg, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her dress was a coral rose taffeta.

Robert Pellegrini was best man. Ushers were Michael Schulenberg and Michael Reagan.

The bride's mother wore an aqua dress with matching accessories. The groom's mother chose a green dress with matching accessories.

The reception following the ceremony was held at the Lola Valley Masonic Temple.

The bride graduated from Redford Union High School. The groom from Pontiac High School.

Following a trip to Cadillac, the couple will reside near Seven Mile and Telegraph in Detroit.

Dr. Morton Plotnick New Director For J.C.C.

Dr. Morton Plotnick was recently promoted to the position of program director at the Jewish Community Center, announces Milton J. Miller, Center president.

He was promoted from his former position of director of educational services at the Center.

Dr. Plotnick, a former teacher in the Oak Park school system, received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from Wayne State University and his Ph.D. in Adult and Higher Education from Michigan State University.

During his undergraduate days he worked at the Center as a club leader with the day camp.

Long active in B'nai B'rith Young Adults, he served as that organization's International president during 1957 and 1958. He was also sent as a delegate to the First World Jewish Youth Conference which was held in Jerusalem.

He also served professionally with the Michigan Regional B'nai B'rith Youth Organization as program supervisor.

During his teaching years Dr. Plotnick wrote several articles in professional journals. He is a member of Phi Delta Kappa, the National Society for the Study of Education and the Adult Education Association of the United States.

Now 30, Dr. Plotnick resides in Southfield with his wife Evelyn and their two young children, a daughter Suzanne, 4, and a son, Daniel, 1.

Area Lutherans in Rally

Professor B. W. Teigen, President of Bethany Lutheran College in Mankato, Minnesota, was the guest speaker for the annual Lutheran Reformation Rally held in St. Peter's Ev. Lutheran Church in Plymouth. The service, which featured a large mass chorus and a choir composed of children from several Lutheran schools in the area, was held recently.

The mass chorus was conducted by Conrad Schubach, the choral director at St. Peter's Church. The Rev. Robert P. Mueller, pastor of Peace Lutheran Church in Livonia, directed the children's voices. Miss Carolyn Smart, guest organist from St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Livona, presented several selections in keeping with the Reformation theme.

In his address, Professor Teigen indicated that he will use the same approach that the famous Protestant Reformer, Dr. Martin Luther, used 449 years ago when he urged his hearers to stand fast in the pure doctrines of God's holy word. The college president based his message on II Thessalonians 2:13-17. The Rev. K. F. Koeplin, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church in Tecumseh served as liturgist for the service.

Assisting in the arrangements for the rally were the Rev. W. Koelpin, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Livonia, the Rev. Edward Zell, pastor of Lola Park Lutheran Church in Redford and Pastor Mueller. Lay leaders who served as deacons and ushers for the service are Marvin Webber of Plymouth, Arthur Jackson of Livonia, Emmett Weyer of Redford, Terry Hebron of Wayne, George Hammon of Belleville and Oscar Bryan of Tecumseh.

Several ladies organizations from St. John's Lutheran, Salem Lutheran and Darlington Lutheran Churches of Ann Arbor served as hosts at a brief fellowship hour in the basement of St. Peter's Church, following the service.

"Chrismons" To Be Nov. 10

Holy Trinity Lutheran Church Celebrates Fifth Anniversary

Holy Trinity Lutheran Church located at 39020 Five Mile Road, celebrated its fifth anniversary on Sunday, Nov. 6 with a dinner in the evening in addition to the usual morning services.

Rev. Wayne Koenig has been pastor of the congregation since the church's first service Nov. 5, 1961. Services then were held in the Lincoln School until the present church building was built and dedicated May 19, 1963. The small group of 50 members has increased to 300 with a total membership of 550.

Visitors are cordially invited to attend Sunday services at either 8:30 a.m. or 11 a.m. with Sunday School beginning at 9:45 a.m.

Father Sayers To Speak at New Temple Nov. 11

Father Carl Sayers, Rector of St. Stephens Episcopal Church, Birmingham, will deliver the sermon at Friday evening services of The New Temple on Nov. 11, 8:30 p.m. at the Birmingham Unitarian Church. Father Sayers' sermon topic will be, "Origin of Ritual" and his talk is intended to develop understanding of why both the Jewish and Christian religions are ceremonial in nature.

As the fourth program in the New Temple's Dedication Pentecostad, Father Sayers' presentation will broaden the scope of that 50-day period devoted to intensive exploration of basic issues confronting religious groups today. All interested are invited to attend.

Father Sayers is a graduate of Columbia University and the General Seminary in New York; he is the only member of the NAACP to receive a degree (M.A.) from Sewanee University in Mississippi. He is chaplain with the National Guard and retiring president of the Birmingham Council of Churches.

Father Sayers has been active on behalf of civil rights, taking part in the voter registration project in Mississippi in 1964 and marching in Selma, Alabama, in 1965. He also helped organize the Hobart Street march in Detroit in 1966.

Father Sayers is married and the father of three.

Dixon-Hillestad Speak Vows

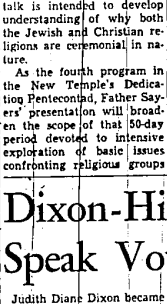
Judith Diane Dixon became the bride of John Lloyd Hillestad in an Oct. 1 ceremony at Lola Park Lutheran Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin R. Dixon, 14123 Garfield, Detroit. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd K. Hillestad, Rossellar, Livonia.

Pastor Edward Zell performed the afternoon ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore her mother's wedding gown of ivory satin with a court train and veil. Fresh mums adorned the headpiece. She carried a bouquet of white mums.



MRS. JOHN HILLESTAD

Mrs. A. Monroe Peach was her matron of honor. Mrs. Frank Gallo, and Karen Hillestad, (sister of the groom), were bridesmaids. They all wore emerald green floor length gowns trimmed in velvet.

Best man was David Hillestad (brother of the groom).

Lee Dixon (brother of the bride) and Charles Schwitzer were ushers.

The bride's mother wore an eggshell colored jacket dress of pure silk with a beaded bodice. She carried salmon colored roses on an eggshell crepe purse. The groom's mother wore a turquoise coat dress and carried a pink carnation on a beaded purse.

Following the ceremony a reception for 165 guests was held at the Mayflower Meeting House, Plymouth.

The bride was a graduate of Thurston High School and Wayne State University and is now teaching kindergarten at Hoover School in Livonia.

For her going away outfit the bride chose a beige and brown knit dress with a matching coat and mink hat. Her corsage was of cymbidium orchids.

Following a wedding trip to New York City, the couple will make their home in Detroit.

Wool Elegance

Sculptured wool spells elegance any season, anywhere. Good design coupled with lavish, deeply carved fabric and sparkly buttons add up to high style.

the power to heal

Spiritual healing comes through understanding that all "power belongeth unto God" (Psalm 62), that He is the Soul of man, the cause of all being and the source of harmony. This understanding can restore health on a sound spiritual basis. It can be gained through deep prayer and study and is available to all. Hear this public lecture titled "Christian Science: Soul's Restorative Power Revealed" by GERTRUDE E. VELGUTH, C.S., member of the Board of Lectureship of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

Redford Church To Hold Bible Conference

Plans are being completed for the annual Bible Conference of Aldergate Methodist Church, 10400 Beech Daly Road, Nov. 7 through Thursday, Nov. 17, at the church.

Dr. Kenneth C. Kinghorn of Asbury Theological Seminary and one of the most able theologians of the Methodist Church, will be the speaker at both the morning and evening sessions. Dr. Kinghorn, who presently an Associate Professor of Church History at Asbury, is a member of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Church. He is also a member of the American Society of History, Wesleyan Theological Seminary, Evangelical Theological Society and Theta Phi (National society for scholarship in religion). Dr. Kinghorn has contributed a number of articles to the forthcoming Encyclopedia of World Methodism.

A character study of a Bible personality will be given on each of the five evening sessions of the Conference, from 7:00 to 9:30 p.m. The four-hour morning sessions from 10 to 11 a.m. Monday through Thursday, will cover basic Methodist beliefs. Baby sitting will be provided at both the morning and evening sessions, and refreshments will be served at the evening sessions.

Dr. Kenneth C. Kinghorn

Dr. Kinghorn will also give the sermon on Sunday, Nov. 13, at both services—8:30 and 11 a.m.—at Aldergate Church.

Reverend William Wager, Senior Minister, and Reverend Ralph Pieper, Associate Minister, together with the members of their congregation have extended an invitation to neighborhood churches to attend the Bible Conference, which promises a renewal of personal faith and dedication to Christian belief and action. It is expected that there will be a strong representation in attendance from the churches in this area.

Missionary Rally Set Nov. 20-27

Memorial Church of Christ announces that John Pemberton, outstanding missionary to Rhodesia, will conduct a "Faith-Promise Missionary Rally" at the church Nov. 20-27.

This will be the last such rally he will conduct in the states before returning to his field of labor.

"The Faith-Missionary Rally" is being utilized by a growing number of churches of Christ and Christian churches to stimulate interest in the world-wide missionary program of the church.

Pemberton will stress world missions in general and will give specific attention to the growing work in Rhodesia.

Mrs. Phillip Gentile Will Conduct Sunday Evening Lectures

The Church School of North Congregational Church, Southfield, is sponsoring a series of three meetings, Nov. 6, 13 and 20, from 6 to 8 p.m. at the church. Parents, particularly those of young people in grades 7 through 12, have been invited to attend these Sunday evening programs for the purpose of discussing with Mrs. Philip Gentile the unique problems in this Space Age.

Mrs. Gentile is a well-known lecturer in Michigan with many years' experience in counselling with young people and parents and is an authority in the field of family living.

Each evening's program will be complete in itself, with role playing by parents, a film strip entitled, "Values for Teen-Agers" and other methods to help stimulate thinking and discussion.

Aids in Dusting

For better-looking wood picture frames, apply a coat of paste wax and polish. It also makes the dusting of them an easier task.
