The Greatest Power On Earth Is The Printed Word.

ADVENTURE SERIES TO SEE PICTURES FROM LIBERIA

The queerest land in all the world, Liberia, will be revealed in natural color motion pictures with sound and accompanying commentary, at the Detroit Institute of Arts, Woodward at Kirby, next Sunday afternoon, January 26, at 3:30 p. m., when Dr. John Harvey Furbay, explorer and lecturer, appears there in person.

Howling Witch Doctors, weird tribal ceremonials, Snake Society dancers, grotesque Stilt Walkers, jungle villages, in fact, all phases of life in the exotic Black Republic will be portrayed on the screen by Dr. Furbay. He will also take his audience to Dakar, only recently so prominent in the war news, and explain in motion pictures and verbally why this port is of importance in international affairs.

Dr. Furbay's appearance in Detroit is sponsored by the World Adventure Series, the public lecture course at the Detroit Institute of Arts.
