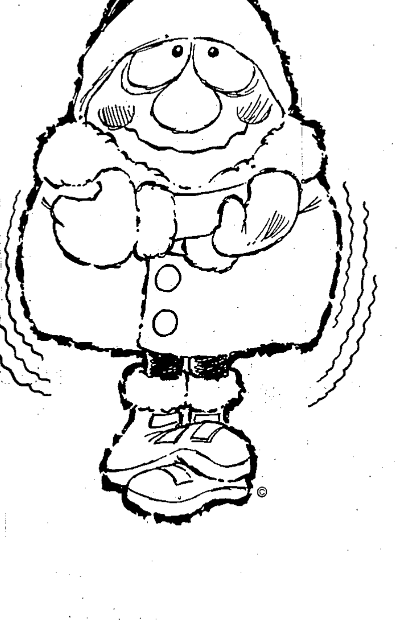
Here's an idea to WARM your heart!



The winter months have arrived and with the thermostat set at 68 degrees, a nice warm feeling is becoming a rare experience. But we have an idea that we think will warm your heart as well as your pocketbook. It's called Classified Advertising.

You own lots of perfectly good items which you no longer use. Why not help someone else by offering these items for sale? You'll be making someone else happy and helping yourself at the same time! That extra cash will warm your pocketbook and the knowledge that your unused items are wanted and used will warm your heart a little too! Place your ad today. It's a great idea!
