WEST POINT PARK
Mrs. William Zwahlen

Mrs. Edwin Johnson of Mayfield Ave. entertained the Stromoskis from near Eloise at dinner Monday evening.

Freda Ault was a guest at the home of Mrs. Gordon Cameron, Five Points Ave., Thursday.

John Oman, of Aldrich Ave., has been on the sick list.

Austin Ault was home ill several days this last week.

Marion Bolyard was again on the sick list this last weekend.

Mrs. Loren Ray of Detroit was the guest Sunday of relatives in this neighborhood.

The Misses Lora and Freda Ault were visitors in Northville Wednesday, calling especially on Mrs. Florence Maloyn.

There will be a special preaching service in the Neighborhood Church next Sunday evening. A hymn sing precedes the meeting, beginning at 5 p.m.

Mrs. Russell Ault, who has been ill, but seemed much better last week, suffered a collapse several days ago and is now again confined to her bed.

It was "Birthday Sunday" in the Neighborhood Bible School Sunday. "Happy Birthday" was sung for half a dozen different individuals. At this session interesting "Scriptural Valentines were handed out to all those in attendance.

The number of chiken-pox cases in the neighborhood is now declining.

A "Surprise Soloist" is expected to visit the Neighborhood Bible School next Sunday or the one following. He is to sing a number specially requested by one of our Boy Scouts. This Bible School meets at 11 a.m.

Among the "Lost or Stolen" pieces of mail reported in this locality during the last two weeks was a widow's old age pension check. It is hoped that the person or persons responsible may soon find Uncle Sam's officials catching up to the guilty, but theft of such a character, subjecting an aged person already underprivileged to further hardship, is particularly outrageous.

The Cubs enjoyed a bingo party at the Varhol home, Shadyside Ave., Wednesday evening.

Girls of the upper grades in Pierson School were permitted to have another dancing party in the school Friday evening. Each girl was supposed to invite a boy friend. Two couples representing the parents and the P.T.A. were chaperons.

The Boys and Girls Bible study group which meets in the Neighborhood Church Friday nights, adjourned to the nearby home of Grandma Ault Friday night, the 11th, and after a period of song and study, enjoyed an exchange of valentines and appropriate refreshments. Unless the weather is again very bad the boys and girls will meet as usual in the church next Friday evening.

The Adult Prayer Bible Study group, working in connection with the Neighborhood Church, met at the home of Mrs. J. W. Ault Thursday evening. Because of the large number of February birthdays in this community, a social hour followed the study period and a beautifully decorated cake brought in by one of the ladies was served with coffee. This group, which is in the habit of meeting in the homes during the cold winter weather, will be at the same place next Thursday. Formerly these folks met on Tuesday.

The First Aid Class which under the direction of Walter Dixon, completed its work last year, held one of its happy get-togethers at the home of Ruby Bonar, Seven Mile Road, Thursday evening. Both fun and food were in abundance.

Half a dozen of the older Girl Scouts are going to the Children's Hospital each Thursday evening after completing their work at Farmington High School and devote some of their time as nurse's aides. The experience is being very good for them as well as interesting and they hope they are being really useful. Some of the girls are Marion Bolyard, Clara and Audrey Roberts, Lora Anne Ault, Idale Coolman and Barbara Harrison.

Clara Lee Shaw, a pupil at Pierson School, received a severe cut on her leg while playing in the snow on the school grounds Friday. It is said that a chipped piece of tile hidden by the snow did the damage. The child was taken to a doctor, who found it necessary to put several stitches in the injured member.

The bee-bee gun has for a long time been a great aggravation in this community. Porch light bulbs and even windows have been shattered repeatedly. Family pets have been crippled and made to suffer terrible agony. It seemed impossible to put a stop to the nuisance. However, the middle of last week tragedy so nearly overtook young Richard Varhol because of being accidentally shot by a bee-bee gun that it is hoped all the youngsters in the neighborhood have now learned a lesson. Richard had to be rushed to a doctor to have the shot removed. A fraction of an inch nearer the eye and the boy would have been blinded and the barest distance in the other direction and the brain would have been reached.

After coming nicely through a chicken pox quarantine young Edward Stange is undergoing a siege of asthma.

Little Miss Pauline Varhol is ill.

Henry Chavey, who was in Africa, is now in Italy.

Mrs. Helen Teshka of Britton Road tendered a bridal shower to Mrs. Vivian Nest, Dr. Hotchkiss' popular nurse, on Tuesday night. Mrs. Nest resides with Mrs. Teshka. Twelve ladies participated. Appointments were very lovely and the gifts most handsome. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess. Mrs. Nest is soon to be married to John Downey.

TWO HEROES HONORED

President Roosevelt personally decorated two young American officers last week with the Congressional Medal of Honor, one for single-handedly attacking a formation of 50 Jap fighters, and the other for wiping out an enemy machine gun nest in Sicily after being wounded five times. Photo shows, left to right: 2nd Lieutenant Jerry H. Kisters, 24, of Bloomington, Indiana, a veteran of Tunisia and Sicily and Lieutenant Kenneth A. Walsh, 29, of Washington, D.C., a Marine flier. Kisters is the first enlisted man to be awarded both Distinguished Service Cross and Congressional Medal of Honor.

WEST FARMINGTON
Mrs. Sarah Knapp

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Knapp spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Giegler at Hartland.

Mrs. Ellen Graham is very sick at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lemuel Irving.

Mrs. Harry Colestock is at her home on West Maple Road after being in Ford Hospital, Detroit, for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wik entertained their Sunday School class with a party at their home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hunt entertained eight boys Monday evening at their home on Fourteen Mile Road in honor of Billy Cox who will soon be inducted into the United States services.

James Waggle was home on furlough from Great Lakes Training Station and spent several days with his wife and daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schluscler.

The West Farmington Extension Group will meet at the home of Mrs. Wendell Green, 27335 Drake Road on Wednesday, February 16. The lesson will be on fitting and remodeling.

Mrs. Edith Graham spent Monday with her daughter, Mrs. Mettie Bachelor, of Walled Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heliker entertained 18 young people at a party Friday evening in honor of Billy Cox who will soon leave to join the services.

Here's A Remedy For Tardiness

Do you suffer from early morning headaches—due to tardiness fear?

Does missing the bus give you heartburn that spoils your breakfast?

Is your day ruined by orange slips that only admit you to your first hour class? Yes? Well, here is the cure—guaranteed, too:

New Bus Schedule

Leaves Redford 8:20; arrives in Farmington 8:40.

Leaves Redford 8:38; arrives in Farmington 9:00.

Try it today. It brings perfect results.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Henry Chandler, who passed out of this life one year ago on February 17, 1943.

Sadly missed by his wife, Florence, son Virgil and daughters Peggy and Joan.

CLARENCEVILLE
Mrs. Mary Rutila

The Auxiliary Ladies extend an invitation to a Stanley Brush Demonstration at the home of Mrs. Virgil Campbell on Oxford Road, at 1:00 p.m. on Thursday, February 24. The Auxiliary will realize 10 per cent on all sales. This money will go for the new project the Auxiliary has adopted, that of raising money for artificial limbs for service boys, a very worthy project.

Mrs. Frank Cashman and family of Oxford had her brother, an Army Sergeant from California, as their guest last week.

Everyone in the community is invited to a musical tea to be given on Sunday afternoon, from 3:00 to 5:00 o'clock, by the Edgewood Mothers Club at the High School. Girl Scouts will be on hand to help with the younger children.

Wednesday of last week a dog catcher from Royal Oak was in the neighborhood and rounded up a few stray dogs. Dog owners should take note. It was pointed out that a heavy fine could be imposed for harboring stray dogs.

Earl Vermillian of Angling Road is confined to his home following a heart attack.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Barnes attended the wedding of a friend at Ward Memorial Presbyterian Church on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Lourin A. Stever of Oxford is somewhat improved, following a threatened illness of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Walsn of Colwell entertained eight guests at a dinner party on Saturday evening.

The ladies of the community were well represented at Mrs. Bacon's party in Farmington last Wednesday.

The hay ride planned by the Girl Scouts for last Saturday evening has been postponed until this weekend, because of the cold weather.

About 27 of the Boy Scouts and their leaders, Mr. Campbell, Mr. Bolitho and Mr. Swarthout, were present at special services held at the Methodist Church on Sunday morning, in honor of Scout Week. The pastor, Miss Johns, gave an impressive talk on Scouting, and followed with a sermon for good Scouts.

At the Hard Time party at the High School two weeks ago, Mr. and Mrs. George Nacker and Mr. and Mrs. Beiser were on hand to demonstrate some of the pretty old dances. Parents should take note of this interest on the part of these adults, and plan to attend future school affairs, for parents are always welcome at these activities.

The Barnes family and Mrs. Helen Barnes attended "The Skating Varieties" at Olympia on Sunday evening.

Ethel Pink returned to Ypsilanti Normal on Sunday, following a few days vacation with her parents between semesters.

The Christmas family were dinner guests of the Pink family on Saturday evening.

A registration board has been placed in Smith's Drug Store for the convenience of service boys and girls, through the courtesy of Mr. Swarthout. Service boys and girls who are home on furlough may leave their names on the registration board, and thus their friends will know that they are home.

The Boy Scouts have realized $60.00 from the sale of newspapers, to date, but the drive is still on, so call Farmington 769, or 1124-M, if you wish to have someone pick up your old papers.

The Troop now number about 50 boys, so every street in the community must be well represented. Everybody is willing to help the boys get their camping equipment by saving their old papers.

The community was alive last Sunday, with sleighs loaded with youngsters being pulled by cars. Fine sport if no mishaps occur.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kaufmann, Jr. and daughter, Sally Ellen, of Akron, Ohio, arrived Sunday on a surprise visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stevens of St. Francis Avenue. Mr. Kaufmann returned to Akron Sunday night, but Mrs. Kaufmann is staying for a week visiting friends and relatives.

IN MEMORIAM

After Four Years

Know, dearest heart, you are not gone from me,
For now an orchestra pours out a flood
Of interwoven, golden melody,
And I can feel your nearness—and your love.

I listen to the song or symphony,
And you are close—I cannot lose you now;
I hear your words, from depths of memory;
Who thinks to grieve? I have forgotten how!

—Gertrude Groves.

Checks Powder

An automatic X-ray machine to accurately check the proper amount of powder in hand grenade fuses, essential to prevent premature explosions, has been developed.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Homer Eisenlord that their son, Corporal Homer Eisenlord, Jr., has arrived in North Africa.
