Shirley Roy Weds Ralph Waggett

Shirley Roy, daugter of Mr. and Mrs. George Roy of 20085 Negaunee, became the bride Saturday afternoon, June 24, of Ralph Edward Waggett, son of Mrs. Thomas Irwin of 19918 Inkster Road. The couple spoke their vows in a double-ring ceremony before the Rev. Elsie Johns at the Clarenceville Methodist Church in Clarenceville.

Miss Roy is a 1948 graduate of Clarenceville High School and has been employed by the Haas Electric Company. The bridegroom, a 1943 graduate of Duwich College, is employed at the S. S. Kresge Co.

Miss Esther Haas was matron of honor at the 4 p.m. ceremony and Miss June Roy, Miss Marion Graves and Miss Delores Leflar were bridesmaids. Charles Haas was best man and Fred Grose, Jr., Tom Irwin and Burt Colbrun were ushers.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, Raymond Roy, the bride wore a gown of white satin with a marquisette bodice fashioned with satin swirls in the marquisette overskirt. The gown had a long train.

Her veil of white nylon was held in place by a crown of beading. Miss Roy carried a bouquet of white roses.

The matron and bridesmaids were gowned in yellow, pink and blue. Their gowns were fashioned with a marquisette neckline and sheer skirts, with lace reaching to the hipline. They wore shoulder length veils with braided crowns and carried matching carnations.

The bride's mother chose a dress of navy blue crepe with a blue and white trim. She wore a corsage of carnations.

Mrs. Irwin selected a navy blue and white polka dot dress with a bolero jacket, with a corsage of pink carnations.

Miss Laura Jean Stevenson sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The Clarenceville Women's Society served the guests ice cream, cake and punch at the reception in the church parlors following the ceremony. Mrs. Robert Roy, sister-in-law of the bride, presided at the guest register.

The couple left to spend a wedding trip at Houghton Lake, Michigan. Mrs. Waggett chose a sheer dress of navy blue and white for her trip.

31 TURN OUT FOR HIGH SCHOOL CLASS REUNION

Better than half of the local graduates of the 1940 class of Farmington High School turned out for a class reunion Sunday, when some 85 adults and children got together for a picnic at Farmington's City Park.

Although there were but 31 alumni present, families swelled the total to nearly 85. On hand to greet the returning alumni were Mr. O. E. Dunckel, present superintendent of schools who completed his first year here in 1940; former principal Max Thompson, who left Farmington with the class of 1940; Coach Paul Shoemaker and Coach Robert Hutton.

Former principal Thompson recognized all of his former students with one exception — and that exception had gained 30 pounds in the 10 year interim.

The picnic started at 7:30 a.m., when local graduates went to the city park and cleaned out the wading pool for use by some 25 youngsters later in the day. At 10 a.m. the first contingent of alumni arrived, to stay until 8 p.m. that night.

Entertainment for the afternoon consisted of a double-header ball game between members of the 1940 baseball team and the rest of the group. The veterans won, 13 - 3 and 22 - 8. Prizes were also awarded for the largest family, oldest child, most recently married, and most outstanding bachelor.

James Davis on Powers won the first award for his three children. Elsie (Glatfelter) Crook took the prize for having the oldest child. Charles Oldenbrand won the most recently married award, and John Brooks took the prize for outstanding bachelor.

Wednesday, June 21, after a short business meeting, a social evening was held. The film "Battle of Britain" was shown, then refreshments were served.

Mrs. Norman Moore was elected delegate to the National Convention to be held in Chicago in August.

Saturday, July 1, a bake sale will be held at Godette's Market on Eight Mile at Beatrice. Chairman Mirian Meisner is asking for baked goods Friday evening or Saturday morning. For information, call 1034-J or 2762-J.

Joan Mitchell and Josephine Baughton were installed into membership Wednesday evening.

Announce Engagement

BARBARA JOAN MOREL

Mr. and Mrs. John O. Morel, of 18825 Melvin Road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Joan, to Mr. William Walker Stanford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stanford of 410 Dunbar, Northville. Joan is a 1950 graduate of Farmington High School, and Mr. Walker is a 1949 graduate of that school. He is now attending Ferris Institute at Big Rapids, Michigan. No wedding date has been set.

Pauline Early, Carl Hanson Wed

Pauline Mae Early, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Early of Rockford, Illinois, formerly of Farmington, became the bride Sunday, June 18, of Mr. Carl L. Hanson. The couple spoke their vows before Rev. Carl H. Schultz at the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church in Farmington.

Miss Early is a graduate of the University of Michigan, where she received a degree in Library. The groom, son of Mrs. Frances Hanson and the late Carl Hanson of Farmington also is a graduate of the University of Michigan with a degree in Aeronautical Engineering.

Mrs. Milton Knight was matron of honor at the 2 p.m. ceremony, and Arthur Scheffler, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Beverly Olszynski sang "Smiling Through" and "I Love You Truly".

The bride's gown was white satin fashioned with a Queen Anne collar and a peplum that dipped in the backed, trimmed with lace. Her fingertip veil was held in place by two marconi daisies. White marconi daisies, Esther Reid daisies and veregated English ivy were chosen for the bride's bouquet.

The matron of honor wore a gown of pink marquisette. She carried a bouquet of blue marconi daisies, Esther Reid daisies and veregated English ivy.

Mothers of both the bride and the groom wore corsages of pink roses and rainbow asters.

A reception was held in the basement of the church following the wedding. Guests were present from Wisconsin, Illinois, Detroit, Wayne, Brighton, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor and Dearborn.

The couple left for Houghton Lake immediately after the reception where they will begin a canoe trip down the Muskegon River to Big Rapids. They plan to make their home in Seattle, Washington, where Carl will be employed by the Boeing Aircraft Co.

Jefferson Jottings

By MRS. NORMAN MOORE
21719 Jefferson, Phone 2762-J

Wednesday afternoon was a very exciting, as well as educational day for the folks on the 2100 block of Jefferson. Out of nowhere came a swarm of bees, about 5,000, a bee tender estimated. They landed on a branch of a young maple tree, bending the branch to the ground with their weight.

After a short time the township police obtained the services of Fred Shell, owner of the Shell nursery on Northwestern Highway. Several quiet moments passed with everybody watching the experienced hands working with those bees until they all disappeared into the hive.

Miss Grase Priest was a Sunday guest of her sister, Mrs. Ruth Miller of Jefferson Street.

The George Geisners of Jeffrson Street and the Hillmans of 8 Mile Road had a picnic Sunday at Nankin Mills.

The Ernest Moores of Jefferson Street and the Ross Moores of Beatrice Street spent the week end up north in Beulah, Michigan, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Witteman, formerly of Jefferson Street.

Velma Sovel of Detroit was the Sunday guest of her sister, Sarah Manning, of Jefferson Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mitchell of Jefferson spent Wednesday visiting friends in East Detroit.

Mrs. Fran Kutschke and sons, of David Road, spent a couple weeks with Mrs. Kutschke's folks in Indiana.

CAROLYN PASCHKE BRIDE OF DELTON OTT

Carolyn Paschke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Paschke of 21650 Powers Road, was wed June 3 to Delton Ott of Howell at a double ring ceremony solemnized by the Rev. Victor Halboth at Grace Luthran Church.

Miss Paschke is a 1949 graduate of Farmington High School and the groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ott of Vines Road, Howell, is a 1945 graduate of Clinton High School.

The bride appeared in a gown of white velvet dotted organdy fashioned with long sleeves and a basque bodice. Her illusion veil, trimmed with lace, was held in place by a tiara of lace and sequins. Miss Paschke carried a bouquet of white rosebuds, white carnations and yellow throated white carnations.

Mrs. Stanley Gliddon was matron of honor and Dolores Butler and Wanda Graham were bridesmaids. LaVerne Ott, brother of the groom, was best man and LeRoy Paschke and Elwood Ott were ushers.

The bride's mother chose a yellow shadow organdy with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Ott wore a gown of green silk with black accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

A buffet supper was served at Maccabee Hall following the ceremony.

Mrs. Ott chose a dress of white eyelet with an orchid corsage taken from her bouquet for her wedding trip.

John Graham and Mary Carrie attended the Giegler reunion held at the Clyde School on Sunday.
