AREA DELEGATES ATTEND ANNUAL CHURCH MEET

Baptismal services were held on Sunday for 156 persons, 11 from Farmington, at the Regional Convention of Jehovah's Witnesses held in the auditorium at Saginaw January 1 to 3.

"Baptism is the beginning of a Christian career, not the end. It signifies dedication to do God's will, with a destiny of eternal life," said C. W. Barber, District Minister from Brooklyn, N. Y.

Barber spoke at the principal session of the convention Sunday afternoon on the question, "What is Your Destiny? Atomic Extinction or Eternal Life in Peace?" He said, "You fix your own destiny. You may choose to end with this evil system of things by relying on the vain and empty promises of men; or you may choose to live in eternal peace in the righteous New World if you are guided by the sure word and promises of Jehovah God."

According to De Loss Ludwig, presiding minister for Jehovah's Witnesses in Farmington, 200 of the 2280 delegates attending the convention were from Farmington.
