Girl Scout News

Nearly 200 Girl Scouts and their leaders were gathered at Bishop Lake near Brighton Friday night for a week end Camp-O-Ree which was cut short Saturday afternoon due to a bad storm. Among those gathered around the camp fire Friday night for the opening of the Camp-O-Ree were girls and leaders from Senior Troops 494 and 527; Tween Hi Troops 176, 179 and 177; and Intermediate Troops 174, 400, 491, 178 and 171.

The park ranger conducted three one-hour nature hikes Saturday morning. Early Saturday afternoon before the storm a surprise fire drill was called by Mrs. Dickerson and within eight minutes time two bucket brigade lines covering 500 yards had put out the fire.

With a bad storm in the offing, clothes were checked and articles gathered with the girls waiting for orders in their tents. The wind and rain, along with hail, finally came. The more experienced Mariners took over under Mrs. Dickerson and Mrs. Barnum and took down the tents.

Other girls were loaded into trucks and taken to the state barn where fires were built and hot drinks served. Parents soon arrived to pick up their girls.

One Tween Hi Troop and a Senior High Troop stayed in the First Aid tent throughout the storm but found everything too wet to stay over Sunday. Leaders went back Sunday to clean up the grounds.

Rangers provided a great deal of service in helping out during the storm. They also provided wood and tables for the Camp-O-Ree and erected two flag poles.

Our Lady of Sorrows held a combined Brownie Fly Up ceremony at the school during their regular meeting, followed with refreshments being served. Going up from Troop 468, led by Mrs. Petersmark, were: Joanne LeBlanc, Susanne Johnson, Barbara Hoffman, Janice Matsuy and Janet Doyle. From Troop 170, with Mrs. Bades leader, were Mary Larzelere, Carol Cyr, Cheryl House, Elizabeth Cushing, Carol Mullens, and Patricia Kolbasa. From Troop 228, with Mrs. Boatman as leader, were Marilyn Lyoff, Katheryn Coklin, Jean Fishback, Mary Tody and Joan Hebert.

Brownies flying up to Intermediate from Troop 196 were Sharon and Karen Erdmann, Margaret Geiger, Diane Herrin, Carol Maatala and Ruth Schultz.
