Farmington High Students Get Engineer Advice

Nineteen Farmington High School students were among the more than 650 prospective engineers from Detroit and suburban schools in attendance Tuesday at the 20th annual Engineering and Science Vocational Guidance Meeting in Detroit.

The purpose of the meeting was to encourage all qualified students to select engineering as a career.

Dr. John D. Ryder, Dean of the School of Engineering at Michigan State College and new president of the Institute of Radio Engineers, was guest speaker and addressed the group with a general talk on careers in engineering. Following his talk, students met with over 100 counselors representing all branches of engineering and the physical sciences. Questions were answered and advice was offered to students regarding the field of engineering of interest to them.

The meeting is sponsored yearly by the Engineering Society of Detroit.
