West Franklin Estates News

ANNETTA LIND
MA. 6-6773

The residents of West Frank- lin Estates hope our new black and brass signposts at the Glen- muer and Pearridge entrances will identify our growing sub- division.

Our 23rd family is the William Newlin's. However, Mrs. Wil- liam Newlin, Mrs. Harry Gem, Mothers Day, is our very latest resident.

Roger Liniger, 38674 Glenmu- er is very seriously ill in New Grace Hospital, room 503.

Our own boyscouts Ed Kuzin- ski and Joe Tyler chaperoned Troop 48 campout at Proud Lake the weekend of May 22.

THE R. K. ARnolds are mov- ing "back to the city" about July 1st. They have purchased a home on Mark Twain in De- troit.

Our WPE association owes its thanks to our past president George Douglas for his fine ef- forts while in office. Our new officers are: Charles Merry- man, president; Jack Levey, vice president; Edward Kuzin- ski, treasurer; and Gerry Coy- kendall, secretary.

We are all looking forward to our annual 4th of July picnic, complete with full dress par- ade, much food, and a full keg. See you there.

Around The Circle In Staman Acres

Gail Taylor GR. 4-0949

The families in charge of keeping the entrances trim for the remaining days of June are the Frank Ambroses and the B. B. Benders. Those in charge for the month of July are the Russell Blantons and the Wil- liam Bleakleys.

Shirley Blanton informs us that, for all those who like strawberries, there will be a Strawberry Festival put on by the Womens' Club of the River- side Presbyterian Chapel. It will be held this Sunday, June 12 from 3 to 6 p.m. at Bow- man's Farm Cupboard. For re- servations call Hazel McKee GR 4-5337.

The election association meet- ing was held last Friday at the Farmington Savings and Loan building. New officers for 1960- 61 are Peter Klapp, president; Dick Brown, Vice president; M. Callouette, treasurer; Kay Borando, recording secretary; Al Thompson, civic affairs chairman; Al Reynolds, land- scape chairman; Jack Burke, restriction chairman; and Fran Christensen, school chairlady. The office of corresponding will be filled by presidential appoint- ment.

TWO AMMENDMENTS to the Association By-Laws were voted upon at the meeting. (1) The past president will be the next year's presidential advisor with full voting rights and (2) The office of corresponding sec- retary will be an appointive office instead of an electoral office.

Ray and Millie Unks have had a houseful of guests during the last two weeks. Denny, Mar- garet and Christine Unks spent two weeks at the home. Denny is now on his way to Rochester, Minnesota where he will spend 10 weeks at the IBM School.

Tuesday evening Vic and Charlotte Waskowski celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary by taking Jim and Jean Haines and Kay and Stan Wilkins to Al Green's for dinner.

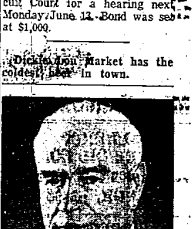
Gail Taylor spent a delightful weekend at Cooley Lake at the home of Karen Wells, a form- er resident of Farmington. Then she saw Karen off for Montreal where she will board a liner for Europe as a Michigan Coun- cil of Churches exchange stu- dent.

Car Theft Case Goes To Circuit Court

Raymond Traud, 17, pleaded guilty in a hearing before Judge Schulte Tuesday on the theft of a 1954 Chevrolet from the area of the Theatrical Arts Studio, 32621 Grand River, last Sunday.

Traud was bound over to Cir- cuit Court for a hearing next Monday, June 13. Bond was set at $1,000.

Dickie Bird Market has the coldest beer in town.



Arthur W. Eckman of Cam- bridge, Mass., was named President of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ Scientist, in Boston, Mass. at the June 6 annual meeting.
