Bel-Aire Floor Covering
Meet Your Merchants

LEO GOLDBERG, Floor Covering Expert

Leo Goldberg, proprietor of Bel-Aire Floor Covering on 10 Mile at Orchard Lake Road in the Bel-Aire shopping center, is a man with plenty of know how in the floor covering business backed up by 15 years of experience.

In addition to the Farmington store which opened about a year ago Leo also operates another floor covering establishment on Southfield in Detroit.

Leo is a firm believer that a merchant must not only handle top quality merchandise in today's competitive market, but must also provide advice and service to customers so that the product will be utilized properly after the purchase.

He follows through on his theory by carrying a fine line of merchandise which includes names such as Armstrong and Kentile as well as Mac-O-Lac paints. As for customer service, he often will spend as much as an hour discussing the proper use of a product with a customer who is going to do his own work. For those who don't do the work themselves, Gldberg has his own staff of experts to handle installation of floor covering and other jobs.

Leo is married and he and his wife, Ruth have two children, David, 2½, and Lynn, 9 months and they are now expecting number three.

OUTSIDE HIS family and business Leo has little time for other interests, although he does sponsor a bowling team that rolls at Bel-Aire Lanes.

Several years ago he was a well known wrestler in the Detroit area and faced many of the nation's top competitors in the 123 pound class. Leo later taught wrestling for several years at the Highland Park YMCA. He spent 3½ years in service during World War II.

Among the products handled at Bel-Aire Floor Covering are various floor tiles, linoleum, wall tiles, formica, and paint and painting accessories such as brushes, rollers, etc.

A featured product of the store is custom made window shades which are manufactured at the Detroit store. Leo has found that many discriminating customers have not been satisfied with the ready made variety and have expressed a preference for something more stylish and attractive.
