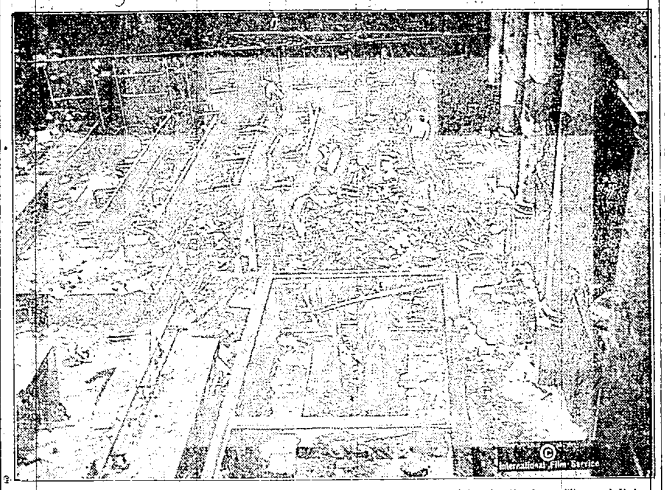
TERRIBLE BLIMP DISASTER IN CHICAGO



Thirteen persons were killed and 26 injured when a dirigible balloon owned by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company caught fire above the loop district of Chicago and crashed through the roof of the Illinois Trust and Savings bank. Ten of the victims were employees of the bank and three were members of the crew. The illustration shows the scene inside the bank after the disaster.

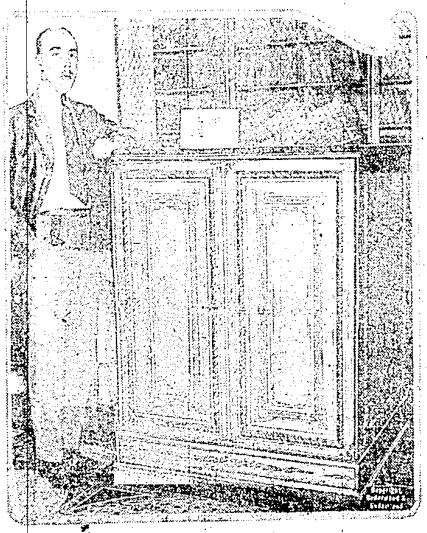
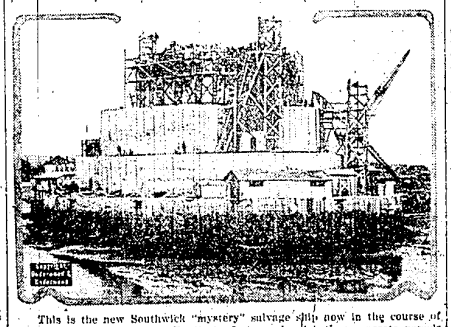
WHERE PRECIOUS DOCUMENTS ARE KEPT



Fire underwriters and patriotic societies have appealed to have originals of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States removed from the state, war and navy buildings in Washington to a fireproof structure. The documents are kept in this steel safe.

BRITISH MYSTERY SALVAGE SHIP



This is the new Southwick "mystery" salvage ship now in the course of construction near Brighton, England. It is made of hollow concrete vessels which are flooded and sunk in pairs and hushed to each side of the wreck. The water is then pumped from them and they rise, bringing with them the wreck.

DR. MANUEL RODRIGUES

Dr. Manuel Coelho Rodrigues, recently arrived in Washington from Brazil to begin a year's work at the Pan American union and the state department in furthering the provisions of the agreement reached at the recent conference in Rio Janeiro.

He Meant Well.

He is proud of his ancestry, which descends in an unbroken line from the Penns who bought the woods from the Indians. Family is everything with him.

He was perched on a chair in a bootblack's stand, and gave warm greeting to a passing friend.

Bootblack (lately from Greece)—You known dat fella?

"Yes, he is an old friend of mine; I have known him for more than twenty years."

"Twenty years! By gar, you know him in the old country."—San Francisco Chronicle.

Too Much Study.

Crabshaw—Why do you wish to leave school and go to work when you're so young?

Willie—It's this way, dad. School is going to be a tough place for the next few years. We'll have a new map of Europe to study, and if we fall down on it the teacher is likely to give us the constitution of the league of nations to learn by heart.—Life.
