Girl Scouts Plan Holy Hour

All friends of Girl Scouting are invited to attend the 20th Annual Holy Hour which the Archdiocesan Committee for Girl Scouts will present at the University of Detroit Memorial Building from 4 to 5 p.m. Sunday, March 8.

Catholic girls who belong to troops that are not under parish sponsorship are, especially urged to come.

NO ADVANCE reservations are necessary. The U. of D. Memorial Building has ample seating capacity and parking facilities.

Fr. Thomas Flynn will preach the sermon. Fr. James Maloney will be the celebrant of the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Fr. Thomas Peckham will be the deacon and Fr. William Child the subdeacon. Fr. Jerome P. Shanahan will lead the prayers.

Public recognition will be accorded during the Holy Hour to the 171 girls who have earned Marian Awards in the past year. The Marian Award is the highest accolade a young lady can win for excellence in Girl Scouting and praiseworthy progress in the knowledge and practice of the Catholic religion.

Mrs. Dexter Ware is chairman for the program, with Mrs. Lawrence Hittler as co-chairman.

There are 905 Girl Scout troops under Catholic auspices in the archidiocese, with an enrollment of 19,810 girls and 2,101 adult leaders.

Kendallwood Komments

By KATHY (I'll Write If You Call) ZISKA GR. 4-7261

Much bridge was played in Kendallwood last week. At Rita Bailey's on Craftsbury Thursday evening, Merle Glick walked away with high score and Mary Jane Curme won second place. The Monday Night Duplicate Bridge Group met at Lynn Mooney's on Bayberry. North and South high score winners were Auralee Garcia and Kathy Ziska and East and West high was won by Ann Edlinger and Bobbie Armstrong. An informal bridge took place at Joanne Billmayer's on Red Clover on Wednesday with Wilma Sieloff, Donna Fleihman and Edith Watson attending.

Saturday Night Couples Bridge met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Lentz of Leamington. Jack Magers won high for men and Joan Lennis took high for the ladies. Jack Elliott got the boobie.

Ed and Bonita Cunningham of Farmington Road, formerly residents of K-2 on Westerleigh, had a Valentine Party at which 45 people attended, many of which were Kendallwood residents.

A SURPRISE birthday party for Bill Salisbury on Bayberry took place Saturday, February 15, after the play at the Barn titled "Rain" of which Bill is production manager. Sixteen people were there to sing Happy Birthday while he cut the cake. Each person brought along a "funny gift."

A farewell party for Mary Anne Weatherwax was given by Shirley Murray of Hearthstone. Attending were Wanda Gilmour, Joan Harris, Pat Camp, Dottie Ruhlman and Gloria Giles. The ladies presented Mary Anne with a farewell gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Norm Liebert of Quail Hollow just returned from a business and pleasure trip to Florida. After attending the Cutting Tool Manufacturers Association Convention at the Hollywood Beach Hotel, Norm and Irene went to Nassau where Norm tells of the 200 lb. blue marlin that got away.

Anne White of Baintree was pleasantly surprised on her birthday a week ago when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Hoover, her mother-in-law Mrs. Russell White, and her sister, Miss Mary Hoover rang her door bell and had brought along a complete dinner and all the trimmings, such as the birthday cake, table cloth, champagne, etc., for all.

Anyone wishing to autograph the cast of Jean Fugo of Peppermill, which she is wearing because of a broken leg, will have at least a month to do so.

TO DATE, the ribbon winners from the Kendallwood area at the Cobb Hall Sewing and Garden Show, for the flower arrangements that were judged on Saturday are: Grace Bullman of Craftsbury, a blue ribbon for her arrangement featuring metal; Kathy Ziska, a blue ribbon for her arrangement featuring wood; Marvel Steiger, two red ribbons, one for her disciplined house plant and one for the arrangement featuring metal. In the miniature arrangements, Hazel Johannes of New Castle received a blue ribbon and Pat Camp of Hearthstone a red ribbon.

The Kendallwood Ladies League that bowls every Tuesday has Team 8 in first place with 52 points. Members of that team are B. Roberts, F. Weber, O. Paddan and P. Neneau.

Last Tuesday, Jean Chesney rolled a 209. Maxine Benish rolled a 576 series which gave her 147 pins over average to win a free shampoo and set. Maxine leads the second high category while Cathy Kraft has a 221 game to her credit and is in first place for second high.

Wayne Women Plan to Attend St. Conference

Three local women will attend the fifth annual All-State Conference of the Women of Wayne State University Saturday, Feb. 29, on the Wayne campus.

They are Mrs. Joe T. Miller, 20741 Warner, president of the Farmington Women of Wayne chapter; Mrs. Robert Larson, 23944 Powers Road, chairman of the service committee; and Mrs. Richard Wolff, 21984 Leelane, WOW Council delegate.

Lectures, tours, "a brainstorming luncheon" plus a chance to renew friendships with former classmates are highlights of the day for alumnae.

MRS. MILLER and her committee arranged the afternoon program for the conference which will feature Mrs. Fern Zwickey, of the WSU art education department, who will talk on "The Art of the Puppeteer." Her talk will conclude with a puppet show presented by her university students.

"A Noose — A Niche," a discussion of the cultural, educational and professional needs of the college-trained woman as she seeks her place in her home and community will be on the agenda for the morning session.

Planning to attend are Mary, 10, and Barbara, 9, daughters of Mrs. Miller; and Diana, 11, and Cindy, 9, daughters of Mrs. Wolff.

-:- OBITUARY -:-

MRS. MINNIE STEADIFORD, who formerly resided at 30725 Grand River Avenue in Farmington, passed away in Clare, Michigan February 20 at the age of 74.

She leaves one daughter, Lucile Randall; a granddaughter, Clarion Neville; and a great-grandson, all of Clare, Michigan, to survive her.

Also surviving are two brothers, Arthur Goers of Farmington and Avis Jamison of Brighton; and one sister, Ora Joy of Farmington.

Funeral services were held February 22 at the Thurston Funeral Home with the Rev. Harold Knickerbocker officiating. Burial took place at Cherry Grove Cemetery in Clare.

Campaign Set By Democrats

Oakland County Democrats will combine a day of political training with an evening campaign kick-off when they gather in Detroit March 21 for the party's annual Jefferson-Jackson Day program.

Morning and afternoon discussion groups and workshops geared to Michigan involvement in President Johnson's war on poverty will precede the Jefferson-Jackson dinner which will feature a nationally prominent speaker.

THE DAYTIME sessions will involve outstanding Michigan Democratic state and party officials, according to Sander Levin, county party chairman.

"President Johnson's attack on poverty holds great meaning for our county and state," Levin said. "The daytime program will both inform people of the problems we face and suggest courses of action we can take right here at home."

The opening session will begin at 10:30 a.m. Workshops will continue until 4:30 p.m. when a reception will be held for Democratic officials and candidates.

A noon luncheon will honor party workers and will feature political satire by "The Democratic Five and Their Hootenanny Parodies."

THERE IS NO fee for the daytime activities except for the luncheon.

All events will take place in Detroit's Light Guard Armory.

Ticket sales in Oakland County are being handled by Harold Robinson of Royal Oak, Mrs. Ernest Nigg of Birmingham, Julian Cook of West Bloomfield and John Houston of Pontiac.

A great step towards independence is a good humored stomach. —Seneca
