MALE HELP WANTED

Anyone answering ads for salesmen should understand that most firms are reputable and ethical, yet there are some which a prospective salesman should investigate carefully. A call to the Better Business Bureau is always a safe procedure. The Enterprise is not always able to check up on individuals or distributors, and warns those answering such advertisements that this is entirely their responsibility.

Wood Creek Farms Village

ANNE M. PHILLIPS
MA. 6-6335

Death has claimed another beloved Wood Creeker. Dave Wingo died last Friday at about 8 p.m. in St. Mary Hospital, Livonia, of a heart attack. He lay at Heeney's Funeral Parlor where the funeral service was held Monday afternoon. Burial was in the North Farmington Cemetery. We all wish to extend our deepest sympathy to his wife, Ethel.

Fred and Zella Missi left here January 15 for the annual trip south. This time they drove via Jackson, Miss. where they stopped to visit friends, then on to New Orleans where they spent a couple of days revisiting the charming old French quarter, then, via the gulf coast route, on to Clearwater, Fla. Here they stayed for a couple of days visiting friends, and Fred had a couple of most enjoyable days of golf with this friend. Then on they went to Fort Lauderdale where Fred played golf five days a week. Zella sunned and shopped and they spent their evenings at interesting night spots. They got back to Wood Creek late in the afternoon a week ago Monday.

TOM AND BERNICE Jennings are the happy, but much surprised, grandparents of a baby girl. This little 5 lb. baby arrived five weeks ahead of schedule, on February 26, at St. John's Hospital on the east side, the second child of their daughter, Jacqueline Kutsch. Of course the baby was put in an incubator, lost several ounces as new babies do, and will remain in the incubator until she regains her full 5 lbs. Jackie went home from the hospital Tuesday where her mother was taking care of her 18-month-old son, Jim, and will remain to take care of her and the new baby when she comes home. Congratulations Tom and Bernice!

Be sure to vote next Monday, the 9th of March. The election will be held at the Fishers, 28393 Wellington. The polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 8 p.m. The following officers are to be on the slate: Alice Billin, clerk; Tom Jennings, treasurer; and Bob Swift, assessor, run unopposed. Two councilmen are to be selected from the following candidates: Watson Kinney, Philo Wright, and Bill Smolek. BE SURE TO VOTE.

The United States has nearly 100,000 legally blind persons, according to the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, Inc.

HELEN CAMPBELL
474-3782

We goofed just a little in our last column. Your new correspondent's name and phone number failed to appear. I'm Helen Campbell and my phone number is 474-3782. Please feel free to call me at any time with any little tid-bit of news.

Mrs. Ethel Williams has returned to her home in Muncie, Indiana, after spending the last several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Carl Campbell and family. While here she enjoyed a day in Ann Arbor with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Brauer, and Mrs. Charles Rossow browsing through "The Treasure Mart" and other points of interest.

Several birthdays have been celebrated during February. Miss Debbie Miller of Whitehall Court celebrated her 12th on Sunday, February 23, with her family.

Two girls on St. Mary Court have the same birthday date, February 26. They are Miss Gay Szczeniowski and Miss Betty Brauer. Gay celebrated on Sunday, February 23, with several of her friends — Cindy and Denise Dinan, Jackie Ansteth, Sally Burton, Beth Reigner, and her cousins Gwen and Nancy Zak.

Betty entertained at an impromptu party for her 14th birthday on February 26. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by Noreen and Kathleen Martin, Denise Dinan, Sue Reigner, Kathy Boyle, Carla Campbell, and Sharon Rossow.

Plan Blood Bank Drive in Franklin

A Community Blood Bank will be held at the Franklin Community Church on Friday, March 13, between the hours of 3 p.m. and 9 p.m.

Anyone interested in donating to the Blood Bank is asked to call Mrs. Charles S. Brown for details, MA. 6-2841.
