There are some problems a Want Ad can't solve...

But not many . . .

Unless you are "out on a limb" in the literal meaning of the phrase, as this unhappy gentleman seems to be, chances are an Observer Want Ad can come to your rescue.

Want Ads were invented to be low cost problem solvers. People read them to find such vital things as jobs, homes, automobiles, farms, furniture, offices, machinery and appliances. And countless others place ads to sell valuable but unneeded items, and to find hard to locate items.

If you find yourself "out on a limb," remember that a low cost Observer Want Ad can help you find your way back.
