A birthday party sponsored by the Sills of Beacon Dr. was celebrated at Uncle John's Pancake House. This celebration took place June 27 with 25 from the Plymouth State Home Training School.

Seventeen were wheelchair children. What a beautiful sight and delight when the children received their party hats, noise makers and a special cake with the magic (constant lighting) candles. They ate and ate for two hours straight and all you could hear was "Mmm, its good!"

Wouldn't it be nice if more people would sponsor parties for the unfortunate children.???

Recently in the Farmington City Park, a surprise bon voyage picnic was held for Tess Schafer of Glenview Drive. A large banner and trunk laden with gifts greeted her as she arrived in the park. It was given for her by the friends and neighbors for whom she has babysat to earn her traveling money. Tess will depart for Madrid, Spain, July 10 for six weeks of study with the Foreign Language League Inc.

R. Michael Schafer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Schafer of Glenview Drive was honored at a buffet supper recently. The supper preceded the Boy Scout court of honor at which time Michael was presented with his Eagle Scout rank. Friends from Farmington and Plymouth and a former teacher were present for the party and ceremony. Michael, an honor student at Our Lady of Sorrows Grade School, will enter U of D High School in September.

Kuhn's Bill On 'Conflict' Becomes Law

Three bills sponsored by State Sen. George Kuhn, R-West Bloomfield, have been signed by Gov. Romney.

The most important was a "conflict of interest" law. (SB 306), which will allow board members of banks and other financial institutions to serve on school boards or local governing boards by declaring the extent of their conflicts of interests with a two-thirds vote of the governing body.

The others are SB 402 and 402, amendments to the Michigan General Corporations Act, which provide that a board of directors may adopt a resolution setting forth restated articles without requiring a vote of the board of directors.
