Get out that calendar and jot down Tuesday, April 30. Yes it's April 30 that the Women of North Farmington will sponsor their annual card party in Our Lady of Sorrows.

Incidentally, Gale and Wanda are the chairmen of the affair. Ticket chairman is Mary Jane Curme with Rachel Marbery; then for door prizes we have Shirley Kinsey.

And if you remember last year's party, the hostesses did serve you well. This year Gerry Wriggelsworth will be chairman of that committee.

TABLE PRIZES at the affair will really be something. A nice group met last Friday at Gale's house on Craftsbury with all their treasures of glass, bottles, etc., to make candle holders. One hundred candle holders is their goal.

Next step will be the paper mache, then painting.

250 Boy Scouts To Clean River

At least 250 Boy Scouts will participate in a Rouge River cleanup job on three weekends this spring, as work gets under way to develop a Farmington nature trail in the city park.

James Pratt of the city planning commission, who is chairman of the project, said the weekends of April 20, April 27 and May 1 have been designated for the activity by the scouts.

Their task will be to rid the river of debris for a stretch of 1,500 feet north of Grand River. As spring progresses, other steps will be taken to beautify the area and to identify the natural floral and fauna growing along the river.

Hartley Thornton, a Farmington naturalist, will supervise details of laying out the nature trail to take best advantage of the area's natural cover.

Troops participating, and their sponsors, will include: 389, Nardin Park Methodist Church; 14, Meadowlake School of West Bloomfield; 35, V.F.W.; 161, First Presbyterian Church; 167, Highmeadow School; 169, American Legion; 45, First Methodist Church, and 263, Kenbrook School.
