Dancers joining concert

Dance Detroit, a resident company of 40 dancers, will perform with the Oakway Symphony Orchestra in a Gershwin concerto.

Dance Detroit, resident dance company of the University of Detroit and Marygrove College, will join the Oakway Symphony Orchestra in an all-Gershwin concert at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Redford Theatre, on Lahser near Grand River, Detroit.

Dance Detroit, under the direction of Iacob Lascu, will perform with the orchestra in the Concerto in F for piano and orchestra. Costuming is by Nancy Missimi.

Iacob Lascu has studied classical ballet, character dance and folklore in his native Romania and with the Russian masters Ivan V. Kirilov and Igor Smirnow of the Bolshoi Theatre of Moscow.

He was the lead dancer with the Roumanian Opera and the National Theatre Folk Ensemble. His extensive career includes his tenure as balletmaster and instructor of the Romanian National State Ensemble.

He is currently balletmaster and an associate director of Dance Detroit, a company of 40 dancers.

THE OAKWAY Symphony Orchestra will be directed by conductor Francesco DiBlasi at Sunday's concert. Also appearing will be guest bonductor Ernest A. Jones, pianist Ruth Burczyk and soprano Julia Broxholm.

Jones and Miss Broxholm are featured in selections from "Porgy and Bess." Miss Burczyk in "Rhapsody in Blue."

The Overture "Of Thee I Sing," will open the program.

Tickets to the concert are available at Hudson's, Royal Music, Hammell Music, Madonna College, Redford Theater and Southfield Parks and Recreation.

Comedy hit extends stay

PIERRE TURGEON

Due to the demand for tickets to performances of Neil Simon's comedy, "Last of the Red Hot Lovers," Somerset Dinner Theatre and Turgeon/Guest Productions have decided to continue the show through May 1 in Somerset Mall, Troy.

Somerset Dinner Theatre presents "Last of the Red Hot Lovers" starring Pierre Turgeon every Friday and Saturday evening. A buffet dinner begins at 7:30 p.m. with an 8:45 curtain. For reservations call 643-8883. Performances are given in the lower level auditorium of the mall at Big Beaver Road and Coolidge.

Kite flying contest set

The staff of Clamdiggers Restaurant of Farmington Hills announces its first annual Kite Fly-In at the parking lot of the restaurant at 30555 Grand River from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday.

Kites and refreshments will be provided, with all proceeds being donated to Farmington Youth Assistance Program of the Farmington Area Police Department.

The restaurant also will sponsor a contest of endurance, with the prize being a train ride to Ann Arbor and dinner at the Gandy Dancer Restaurant, for the winning child and his parents.

Additional information is available by calling Don Garfield at 862-9390.

Cosmic days coming up

A spring seminar in cosmic experience will be held from Friday through Sunday at Colombiere College in Clarkston.

The seminar will feature nationally known personalities in the esoteric, psychical and astrological field. Registrations are being taken daily at the seminar.
