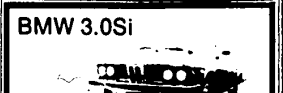
BMW 3.0Si



There are two luxury cars from Germany. One of them shows how much you make. The other one shows how much you know.

Take away the leather upholstery, the burled walnut trim, the distinctive hood ornament and underneath one generally finds that the average luxury car is indeed a very average car.

The BMW 3.0Si, besides the expected luxuries gives you the one thing that makes an expensive car worth the money: extra-ordinary performance. A turbine-smooth, 3-liter engine, supremely efficient fuel-injection and a four-wheel independent suspension system that's a model for modern design.

It is the pure, unfiltered pleasure of driving the car that makes it supreme," says Motor Trend of BMW. If you've never had that pleasure, we'd be delighted to arrange a thorough test drive for you.

The ultimate driving machine.
