TV Today

by DIANE DVIO

There's a trick to wearing a mini on television. "The whole trick is your attitude," says Angie Dickinson who has a great pair of long legs and wears minis effortlessly. The mini symbolizes social freedom -- it goes with a free mood and helps to spark breezy banter, especially on the talk shows. There are a few don'ts for our lovely young mini-skirted actresses on camera. Don't plop into a chair -- or sit dead center in it. Don't cross your legs. Don't stick your legs straight out. It's the way you wear your clothes and how you carry yourself. Being a lady depends on you, not your hemline!

And the trick of our success is our attitude. Of course selling the best T.V.s and stereos for money helps too. BEECH TELEVISION, 26158 W. Six Mile Road, Detroit 40. KE 3-2626, sells Magnavox televisions and stereos exclusively, and has a complete and well-equipped service center located at 29457 W. Six Mile Road, KE 3-7480 and KE 3-7581.
