Another crown for Cranbrook

Cranbrook Swim Club won its fifth straight championship of the Northwest Suburban Swim League, Aug. 7, at Bloomfield Hills Andover High School, after a unbeaten dual meet season.

Heart of the Hills Swim Club finished second in the team standings with Woodmoor Hills Swim Club placing third and the Bloomfield Surf Club following in fourth place.

There were 14 record breaking performances in the championship meet, which spanned four days and began Aug. 4.

Joe MacMillan broke the 100-yard individual medley record for girls 13-14 in both the preliminary and championship races. His final time in winning the event was a 1:08.05. She also smashed the 50-yard breast stroke record of :32.9, set in 1972 by Bobby Kolon, with a :33.25 performance in the finals. MacMillan swims with the Village Swim Club.

Tom Smith, of C.B. Swim Club, smashed Tom Batchelor's 1973 record of :50.786 in the 100 yard individual medley for boys 13-14 with a :50.681 clocking in the finals and the first place finish.

Heart of the Hills Swim Club member Amy Shepard swam a :28.63 in the finals of the 50-yard backstroke for girls 15-17, breaking a record which she had set in a preliminary round of action.

Doug Cleland, of Heart of the Hills, set two records. In the 50-yard breast stroke for boys 9-10 he swam a :35.22 in preliminary races to break one record, and eventually won the event in the finals. Cleland had a :27.47 in the 50-yard freestyle final to break Todd Avery's 1973 record of :28.41.

Ted Pulling, of Forest Hills Swim Club, clocked a :16.08 in winning the 25-Yard Butterfly for boys 7-8 and thereby broke a 1975 record of :16.544 set by David Krull.

Patti Pippin, also of Forest Hills Swim Club, clocked a :29.01 in the 50-yard backstroke finals for girls 13-14 after breaking the previous year's record in the preliminary races.

Jordan Kleber, of the Bloomfield Surfs, had a :27.145 in the 50-yard backstroke finals, breaking Irwin Futernick's 1971 record of :27.30.

Dave Smith, of the Village Swim Club, broke Bruce Wright's 1972 record of :24.70 in the 50-yard butterfly for boys 15-17 with a :24.64 performance in the finals.

The Beechview Swim Club broke the 40-year girls freestyle relay with a :55.21 time in the preliminary races and went on to win the event in the finals. Woodbrook Hills swimmers clocked a :53.29 in the 40-year boys freestyle relay finals to break a 1970 record of :53.70 held by the Bloomfield Surfs.

Village Swim Club swimmers got another record in the 52-year girls medley relay with a 2:01.96 performance in the finals, breaking Cranbrook's 1975 record of 2:02.68.

Old Farm tankers 2nd

The Shenandoah Swim Club upset two-time Tri-City Swim League champion, Old Farm, to win the league's third annual invitational tournament, Aug. 5 at Old Farm Swim Club in West Bloomfield.

Old Farm came in second and Beacon Square Swim Club of Southfield finished third.

Shenandoah had never won a meet until the summer of 1975 when they posted a 1-5 record. This summer their record was 6-1. Don Cornelius has coached the team during the past two seasons and her assistant this year is Mary Pokorny.

Three of Shenandoah's swimmers, Tim Parchinski, Marc Wittenburg, and Steve Pavone, won three events in the league tournament.

Double winners at the tournament included Joanne Horrigan of Old Farm, Jerry Wiencek, Debbie Kenyon, and Brian Michalik of Beacon Square.
