Birmingham auto show to display '77 models

New models cars will be on display this week in Birmingham at the Birmingham Auto '77 Preview Show.

The show opens at noon Monday, Sept. 13 at the Birmingham Ice Arena 2400 E. Lincoln, and continues this week Wednesday.

Sponsored by the City of Birmingham, the auto show is featuring 1977 automobiles from the major makes, 22 in all, and the Bicentennial.

Special features include a fashion show at the door of the ice arena in Seaholm Birmingham Mayor Scott Scripps, Ed Harris of the recreation and Detroit Motorcars Department of parks and recreation are hosting the show.

SHOWING THEIR new 77 models will be the Birmingham Chrysler Plymouth, Bob Bennett Lincoln Mercury, Fischer Buick, Moe Sinyor Chevrolet, Oakland Dodge, Seaholm Pontiac, Suburban Oldsmobile, Turner Ford and Valiant AMC.

The Lincoln Mercury models will be on display Sept. 16 and 17. Participating in a giant display of imports will be Birmingham Motors LTD, Falvey Motors of Troy, Falvey Volkswagen, Gerling Datsun and Tom Sullivan Porsche Audi.

Antiques and demonstrations by the Birmingham Jaycees are participating. However, Will-O-Greenwood Gardens will be open to participants. The Botanical Gardens will present display of the Japanese Garden in miniature.

AWARDED EACH night will be a black and white TV set and free entertainment and free provided nights by Pabst-Blatz.

Dick Morris of Detroit Lakes and Rosemary Clair of Bloomfield Hills will be the co-chairmen for the preparations, in the cases of the men and the ladies.

Jack Faxon of Sears of Birmingham will be the emcee for the Grand Ball. Prizes will be awarded to the Grand Ball. Prizes will be opportunity to display a new model.

The show will be a ribbon cutting at noon Tuesday.
