Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Mollet

Carol Ann Andrews and Gregory Dennis Mollet were wed in Mercy College Chapel. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel L. Andrews of 31045 Berrshill, Farmington Hills, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Mollet of Dearborn Heights.

For her wedding the bride wore a white peau de soie gown, traditionally styled with key hole neckline and applqued Venice lace and full skirt. She fashioned her own Camelot headpiece attached to a fingertip illusion veil. Her Williamsburg bouquet was made of hand rolled white organza roses, babies breath and trading English Ivy.

Cynthia Andrew served as maid of honor with bridal attendants Lisa Lear, Sharon Semande and Deborah Trumbich. They were clad in slender sheaths of buttercup yellow and peach, with off the shoulder capelets. They wore babies breath in their hair while they carried pewter hurricane lamps with English Ivy, babies breath and trailing streamers gifts from the bride.

Gary Brown served as best man with ushers Larry Cornell, David Andrews and Tom Welsh.

She is a 1972 graduate of Franklin High School, now employed with Stark & Company. The groom is a 1973 graduate of Eastern Michigan University, employed with Diamond Automatic.

The couple received guests in St. John Armenian Church's cultural hall before leaving on a wedding trip to Barren Lake, Ky.

They will make their home in Brighton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mahinske

Emily Jean Stewart and Lawrence Mahinske were wed in the First Baptist Church of Hornell, N.Y. in a double ring ceremony conducted by the Rev. Edward Sutton. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra n Stewart of Canisteo, N.Y. and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mahinske of 23641 Springhill Drive, Farmington Hills.

The bride fashioned her own floor length gown with chapel train, high neckline and full collar made of satin and ivory venise over taffeta. Her illusion veil trimmed with satin was attached to her headband adorned with babies breath. Her bouquet was a sheaf of bleached pampas grass with ivory rabbits foot, adorned with brown wheat, rust miniature and baby strawflowers.

Mrs. Sherwood VanDuink served as her sister's maid of honor with attendants Susan Hutson and Karen Bossard. They were clad in shades of brown and rust while they carried matching bouquets.

Thomas Strand served as best man with ushers Stephen Mahinske and Michael Hart.
