Duggan takes soccer post

Jim Duggan, who was instrumental in putting together Detroit's successful bid as a site for the 1994 World Cup soccer tournament, has been named executive director of the host committee for Detroit.

A Redford Catholic Central and Michigan State graduate raised in Livonia and now living in Farmington Hills, the 31-year-old Duggan said he will "have to fulfill a number of criteria" in his new position — including providing a Pontiac Silverdome with a grass surface.

That is what got Detroit its bid. Duggan was the executive director of the World Cup bid committee; he helped sell the idea of putting a game indoors on a grass field to FIFA, the governing body of international soccer.

He also helped get financial commitments from local corporations, something he will continue to do. He will work closely with Tom King, Detroit's executive director of venue. King will be directly responsible for putting on the games, while Duggan will handle most everything else.

That includes today's press conference at the Silverdome's Main Event to announce how many World Cup matches Detroit will get. Four are guaranteed; six are possible. The sites of the semifinals and finals will also be announced.

10-PIN ALLEY

Good things happen to good people. That's exactly the case regarding the sale of a local bowling establishment to Mark and Diane Voight of Troy.

Mark and Diane recently purchased Super Bowl Lanes in Canton Township. The Voight's have earned the respect of the bowling community as owners of Satellite Bowl in Dearborn Heights and Century Lanes in Waterford. Mark also serves as secretary of the Bowling Centers Association of Southeast Michigan.

Mark and Diane are very active owners. They are both involved in the daily operation of the business and anyone who knows them knows how they go out of their way to see that bowlers enjoy the game.

By purchasing Super Bowl, the Voights have obtained another 60 lane beds. They also have establishments in Charlevoix and Fort Wayne, Ind.

Mark and Diane have been successful in bringing the Ladies Pro Bowlers Tour to this area. Now we can look forward to them bringing more events to town.

Good things will soon be happening at Super Bowl.

- Summer league scores are souring at Town and Country Lanes in Westland, including a 300 registered by Tony Sivako. Yves Szmansky came close with a 298. Brian Smith tallied a 300 a few weeks earlier.
- Jim Lhamon of Farmington was the recipient of the Howard McCullough Memorial award from the Youth America Bowling Alliance at its recent awards banquet.

This annual award is presented for the dedication and contributions to junior bowling. Jim is the assistant director of the Sunday Youth Classic Traveling League. He is also a member of the GDBA Board of Directors.

- Larry Walker, a Garden City bowler, will be one of the U.S. competitors in the Africa Cup, to be held July 11-20 in South Africa. Several other nations will also be participating.

As a member of this year's Team USA, Walker gets to pile up some frequent flier miles while taking part in his favorite sport.

This will be the first-ever international 10-pin competition held in South Africa. It's also part of the ongoing effort to include bowling as a medal sport in the Olympics.

- Plum Hollow Lanes is running a Thursday special during the summer months: $1 per game and $1 shoe rental all day.

Flames finish 2nd in Milford tourney

SOFTBALL

The South Farmington Flames began their tournament season with a second-place finish in the Youth Qualifier Tournament in Milford June 13.

The Flames, competing in the 12-and-under division, won their first game 16-8 over the Milford All-Stars. Shanae McGrath was the winning pitcher while Sarah Martinez and Kari Kruez went 3-for-3 at the plate.

The next game ended in a mercy-shortened, 4-2 victory over the Hollywood Bodies. Martinez was the winning pitcher and helped her cause by going 3-for-3 again. Kelly Moug and Kreuz added two hits apiece.

South Farmington lost its next game to eventual tournament champ All-Of-Us from Interlakes, 21-8. Martinez and Erin Fitzgerald had three hits each.

The Flames rebounded with an 11-3 win over the Mid-America Motion. McGrath got the pitching win while Moug, Catherine Doherty and Beth Ann Nowak had three hits apiece.

All-Of-U's overpowered the Flames in the title game, 15-4. Nowak and Moug had two hits each in the losing cause.

The South Farmington roster includes Anna Clark, Kerry Fitzgerald, Melanie Grewe, Blake Heraghty, Amy Jenkins, Flavia Pidazetti, Kristin Siskosky and Emilie Villemonte. The team is managed by Andy Grewe with help from Jim Fitzgerald and Kay Clark.

The South Farmington Fury picked up a fourth-place finish in the 16-and-under division at the same tournament.

The Fury scored 11 runs in the first two innings of its first game and quickly overwhelmed the Mid-America Marvels, winning 21-5 under the mercy rule.

Wendy Nowak and Kristin Snow had four hits each while Lori Hubble and Kelley West chipped in three apiece. Kathy Schneider went the distance on the mound and had two hits of her own.

The Fury played an exciting second game but lost 14-13 when the Finesse scored a run in the bottom of the seventh inning. Hubble, Keri Lowry and Schneider had two hits and scored two runs each.

The loss set up the first meeting between the Fury and its younger sister team, the South Farmington Fever, which played an age group higher.

The Fury scored 10 runs in the first two innings this time and held on for an eventual 11-6 victory.
